David Ingram, Loyola University Chicago
773-508-2299; dingram@wpo.it.luc.edu

All sessions will be held at Loyola University's Water Tower Campus located at 820 N Michigan Ave., Chicago, IL 60611. A map of Water Tower Campus, with driving directions, is available on the web at www.luc.edu/info/maps. Sessions will take place in three buildings:

Lewis Towers (820 N. Michigan Ave at Pearson)
Marquette Center (41 East Pearson)
and the building known as 25 East Pearson

Hotel Accommodations

Lodging for conference participants has been arranged at three hotels, all conveniently located within easy walking distance (three to five blocks) of Water Tower Campus:

◆ The Millennium Knickerbocker Hotel, 163 E. Walton Place (at N. Michigan). Phone: (312) 751-8100. Childcare facilities available. Conference rates: Thurs.-Sat., $179 per night (single and double); $20 extra person charge.

◆ Seneca Hotel, 200 East Chestnut (at N. Mies Van Der Rohe Way). Phone: (312) 787-8900 or (800) 800-6261. Conference rates: Wed. - Sat., $150 single & double, $170 deluxe suite.

NOTE: ROOM RESERVATIONS MUST BE MADE BY SEPTEMBER 9TH

In order to assure a room, early reservations are highly recommended. Mention SPEP Conference for rates.

Travel Information

Specific directions for all modes of transportation are posted on the SPEP web site (www.spep.org). Chicago is served by O'Hare and Midway airports. From the airports you can take public transportation downtown (CTA, the "EL"), or a cab (which costs about $25 from either airport, in normal traffic). Trains arrive at Union Station and will require a bus or cab ride to the hotels. There is no parking provided by Loyola at Water Tower Campus; however, there are plenty of parking garages in the neighborhood. For information about parking garages near Water Tower Campus, see www.luc.edu/depts/safety/lots.html.

Childcare Service

For childcare arrangements, please contact David Ingram (773-508-2299; dingram@wpo.it.luc.edu)

Audiovisual Equipment

To make arrangements for audiovisual equipment, please contact David Ingram by September 9th, 2002.

Abstracts of Papers

Abstracts provided by authors will be available at registration. Speakers should send abstracts to James Risser, Department of Philosophy, Seattle University, 900 Broadway, Seattle, WA 98122 by September 1, 2002.

Book Exhibit

A publishers' book display will be held in the Georgetown Room (second floor, Marquette Center) from 12:00 p.m. on Thursday until 12:30 p.m. on Saturday. This display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social, and political theory. Publishers offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.

Reception

In addition to the Thursday evening reception, there will be a Friday 7:00 p.m. reception sponsored by SPEP with the generous support of Indiana University Press. The reception will be held in the Statesman Room on the second floor of the Seneca Hotel and will include light refreshments and a cash bar.

Web Site

The complete program, with updates and corrections, is available on the SPEP web site: <http://www.spep.org>.

Publication Notice

SPEP retains the right of first review for papers presented at the annual meeting. Each presenter should bring two copies of her or his paper to turn in to the registration table at the time of registration. Decisions about publication will be based on this version. If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by mid-January 2003.

Program Notes

The Nietzsche Society, the Ancient Philosophy Society, the International Association for Environmental Philosophy, the Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy, the Society for Continental Philosophy in a Jewish Context, the Society for Continental Philosophy and Theology, the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences, the Society for the Philosophic Study of Genocide and the Holocaust, and the Society for Social and Political Philosophy: Historical, Continental and Feminist Perspectives are meeting in conjunction with SPEP.

Executive Committee Elections

Margaret Simons' term of office expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates Kelly Oliver, Stony Brook University, for a three-year term as Executive Co-Director.

Kelly Oliver is chair of the Philosophy Department and Professor of Women's Studies at Stony Brook University. She is the author of Witnessing: Beyond Recognition; Subjectivity Without Subjects; Family Values: Subjects Between Nature and Culture; Womanizing

Nietzsche: Philosophy's Relation to the 'Feminine;' and Reading Kristeva. She has edited several books, including The Portable Kristeva, Feminist Interpretations of Nietzsche, and Between the Psyche and the Social: Psychoanalytic Social Theory. She is finishing her third year on the SPEP Executive Committee.

James Risser's term of office expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates him for another three-year term in the position of Secretary-Treasurer.

James Risser is Professor of Philosophy at Seattle University. He is the author of Hermeneutics and the Voice of the Other: Re-reading Gadamer's Philosophical Hermeneutics (SUNY 1997) and editor of Heidegger Toward the Turn: Essays on the Work of the 1930s (SUNY 1999). He is co-editor, with Walter Brogan, of American Continental Philosophy (Indiana 1990). He has served SPEP for the previous three years as Secretary-Treasurer, and before that as Chair of the Advisory Book Selection Committee. In 1994 he was chair of the local arrangements for the 33rd annual meeting held in Seattle.

Kelly Oliver's position as Executive Committee member expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates Peg Birmingham and Gail Weiss to fill her position. The election will be held at the business meeting.

Peg Birmingham is Associate Professor of Philosophy and Chair of the Philosophy Department at DePaul University in Chicago. She is co-editor of Dissensus Communis: Between Ethics and Politics (Pharos 1996). She is also co-translator of Dominique Janicaud's The Powers of the Rational (Indiana 1994). She has published articles on Arendt, Heidegger, Foucault, and Kristeva in such journals as Research in Phenomenology, Hypatia, and Graduate Faculty Philosophy Journal. She is currently completing a manuscript on Hannah Arendt entitled A Politics of Natality: Hannah Arendt and the 'Right to Have Rights.'

Gail Weiss is Associate Professor of Philosophy and Director of the Ph.D. Program in the Human Sciences at the George Washington University. She is the author of Body Images: Embodiment as Intercorporeality (Routledge 1999) and co-editor of Perspectives on Embodiment: The Intersections of Nature and Culture (Routledge 1999), Thinking the Limits of the Body (SUNY 2002), and Feminist Interpretations of Maurice Merleau-Ponty (Penn State 2003). She is editor of the Phenomenology section of the Edinburgh Encyclopedia of Continental Philosophy (Edinburgh 1999) and has published extensively in Continental and Feminist anthologies and journals. She is a longtime member of SPEP and served from 1996-1998 on the SPEP Committee on the Status of Women. She is presently on the SPEP Advisory Book Selection Committee.

Registration Fee and Membership Dues

Faculty membership dues: $60

Faculty conference registration fees: $25

Student membership dues: $20

Student members will have no additional fee for conference registration.

Annual SPEP Lecture and Reception at the Eastern APA Meeting

The second annual SPEP lecture at the Eastern Division APA meeting will be delivered this year by Edith Wyschogrod, Rice University: "Levinas's Other in the Age of the Replica." There will be a response by John Caputo, Villanova University, and the session will be moderated by Merold Westphal, Fordham University. The meeting is to be held December 27-30 in Philadelphia. In addition, SPEP will again host a reception for all members and friends of continental philosophy. The time and location of the lecture and reception will be announced on the SPEP web site late this summer and also at the Loyola University SPEP meeting. Please plan to join fellow members for these events.

Call for Papers

The forty-second annual meeting will be hosted by Boston University from November 5 - 8, 2003. Instructions for submitting papers and proposals will be sent to members of SPEP in the Fall and will also be available on the SPEP web page at <http://www.spep.org>. The deadline for submissions will be February 1, 2003.

Notes of Appreciation

On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee would like to express its thanks to David Ingram, host and local arrangements chair, to Patricia Huntington, book exhibit organizer, and to all the Loyola University Chicago students and faculty assisting them.

Minutes of the 2001 Business Meeting

Walter Brogan called the business meeting to order at 5:55 p.m. on Friday, October 5, 2001.

1. The minutes of the 2000 meeting at Penn State were submitted and accepted without correction.
2. Ken Liberman was appointed parliamentarian.
3. Walter Brogan expressed gratitude to John Rose, Susan Stoeker, Steve DeCaroli, the philosophy faculty, and all of the student assistants from Goucher College.
4. Jim Risser presented the following statistical information for the 2001 meeting: The Executive Committee received 319 papers for consideration; of these, women submitted 121. The Executive Committee accepted a total of 109 papers; of these, women submitted 49. There are 216 participants on the program; of these, 86 are women. There are approximately 480 registered as attending the meeting.
5. Jim Risser presented the budget and treasury report.
6. A memoriam written by David Carr for Elizabeth Stroeker was presented by Lester Embree.
7. Steve Crowell recognized Patricia Huntington from the Loyola University Chicago who gave a brief report about the arrangements for SPEP October 10-12, 2002. Huntington acknowledged the role of David Ingram in organizing the SPEP 2002 meeting. She announced that the meeting would be held at the Water Tower campus, and outlined the hotel arrangements taken to encourage student participation.
8. Steve Crowell recognized Dan Dahlstrom from Boston University who gave a brief report about the arrangements for 2003 at the Boston Park Plaza hotel, November 5-8. A question arose regarding hotel costs for students. Dahlstrom assured the membership that there would be low-cost lodging available.
9. On behalf of the Executive Committee, Steve Crowell thanked Walter Brogan and Dan Dahlstrom for their organizational role in arranging future meetings and invited proposals or expressions of interest for hosting future meetings. Interested parties were invited to contact one of the members of the Executive Committee to discuss the details. Crowell announced that there has been interest expressed by the University of New Mexico/Iain Thomson for SPEP 2004. The membership's enthusiastic expression of support for this plan will be reported to Prof. Thomson.
10. Peg Simons expressed appreciation for retiring member-at-large, Steve Crowell, and Executive Co-Director, Walter Brogan. Appreciation was also expressed for graduate assistant, Ashley Vaught.
11. Peg Simons conducted the elections for the open position on the Executive Committee. For the at-large position, the Executive Committee nominated Dan Dahlstrom and Michael Naas. No nominations were presented from the floor. Dan Dahlstrom was elected to the position. For the position of Executive Co-Director, Steve Crowell ran unopposed and was elected.
12. John McCumber recognized the chair of the Committee on the Status of Women, Linda Bell. Bell expressed gratitude to Johanna Meehan and Nancy Holland for their service on the board and announced that the CSW had sponsored the session "Authority with a Female Face." She reminded the membership that the committee was co-sponsoring the reception after the business meeting, with the help of SPEP and Indiana University Press. She also thanked John Rose and Goucher College for their assistance. Bell announced that Johanna Meehan was leaving the committee. The committee's nominee to replace Meehan, Amy Allen, was elected.

13. John McCumber recognized Steve Crowell, Chair of the Advocacy Committee. Crowell reported on the progress that has been made in acting on previous recommendations from this committee: (1) The APA Eastern Division has agreed to add two categories ("Phenomenology-Existentialism-Hermeneutics," and "Postmodernism and Theory of Culture") to the Advisory Boards of the APA Program Committee. (2) SPEP has now become an official affiliate of the APA Eastern Division and will sponsor its first program, arranged by the Executive Committee, in connection with the APA at the December meeting in Atlanta. Robert Bernasconi will be the speaker. (3) There will be a SPEP sponsored reception for friends of continental philosophy at the Atlanta APA meeting. (4) The 2001 APA program has many more sessions of interest to continental philosophers than in years past, thanks to greater submissions by SPEP members and to the greater presence of continental philosophers on APA committees. The Advocacy Committee urged that these efforts be continued; in particular, that SPEP members submit papers to the APA program, send suggestions for panels, etc., to the APA program committee, and support pluralistically inclined candidates in APA elections. (5) Merold Westphal's revised statement on rankings was added to the web page, as was a link to the APA statement on rankings. Following his report, Crowell expressed gratitude to Merold Westphal for his service on the Advocacy Committee. To replace him, the committee nominated Walter Brogan, and Brogan was elected for a three-year term.
14. John McCumber recognized Linda Martin Alcoff of the Diversity Committee. Alcoff announced the success of the first Diversity Committee panel on "Post-Coloniality and the Self" thanks to Elizabeth Kasab of the University of Beirut and Marianna Ortega of John Carroll University. The committee is working on a special volume of Continental Philosophy Review, devoted to Heidegger in the World (Africa, Asia, Latin American). Alcoff thanked Robert Scharff for his role in organizing this. Alcoff reported that Lucius Outlaw would be rotating off the board after 2 years of service, and announced that she would also be stepping down. Eduardo Mendieta will take over as chair. Marianna Ortega and Constance Mui will become new members of the committee.
15. Kelly Oliver introduced new business. She announced the appointment of Steve DeCaroli as SPEP's webmaster. Oliver solicited recommendations and nominations for members on the Executive Committee.
16. Walter Brogan presented for consideration a new SPEP logo, on which the phrase "the Society for Continental Philosophy" would appear. The Executive Committee recommended this move as a way of indicating more clearly the composition and nature of the society. It was not proposed that the name of the society be changed. After much discussion a vote on the motion was taken. Because the vote ended in a tie, the Executive Committee withdrew the motion for further study.
17. Lester Embree announced that Dermot Moran's new book, Introduction to Phenomenology, had won the Edward Ballard Book Prize.
18. Ken Liberman announced that he and Robert Scharff are compiling a list of names of philosophers to film for their archival series, and asked members to submit photos and lectures of such members to compile a cd rom and add it to the web site.

The Meeting was adjourned at 7:35 p.m.
