Travel Information

Directions for all modes of transportation are also posted on the SPEP web site (www.spep.org).

Air

Memphis International Airport is a Northwest Airlines hub, but is also served by most major airlines. Taxis to the hotel are available for approximately $20.

Train

Amtrak trains arrive daily in Memphis (Chicago-New Orleans route). Take a taxi from the station to the hotel. Call 577-7777 for a cab if no cab is waiting when you arrive.

Car

East: from westbound I-40, take the I-240 North Loop following Little Rock AR directions back onto I-40 West. Take exit 1-A onto 2nd Street. The hotel is 1/8 of a mile south on the right.

West and North: from eastbound I-40 follow the directions towards Nashville, once you cross the river, take exit 1 onto Front Street. The hotel is on the left.

Local transportation

The hotel is located at a stop on the downtown/medical center trolley line that runs from 6:00 a.m. until midnight (1:00 a.m. on weekends), connecting to all of the downtown attractions including the National Civil Rights Museum, the Beale Street and South Main entertainment districts, and numerous restaurants and clubs throughout downtown Memphis. Fare is 60¢ (exact fare required) per ride or $6.00 for a three-day pass.

Childcare Service

Contact Tom Nenon (tnenon@memphis.edu) by September 1 for information about licensed and bonded childcare services in Memphis during the conference.

Audiovisual Equipment

To make arrangements for audiovisual equipment, please contact Tom Nenon (tnenon@memphis.edu) by September 1.

Abstracts of Papers

Abstracts provided by authors will be available at registration. Speakers should send abstracts to James Risser, Department of Philosophy, Seattle University, 900 Broadway, Seattle, WA 98122 by September 1, 2004.

Book Exhibit

A publishers' book display will be held in the Heritage Ballroom, beginning 12 noon Thursday. It will run from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. on Friday and from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday. This display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social, and political theory. Publishers offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.

Web Site

The complete program, with updates and corrections, is available on the SPEP web site: <http://www.spep.org>.

Publication Notice

SPEP retains the right of first review for papers presented at the annual meeting. Each presenter should bring two copies of her or his paper to turn in to the registration table at the time of registration. Decisions about publication will be based on this version. If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by mid-January 2005.

Program Notes

The Nietzsche Society, the Ancient Philosophy Society, the International Association for Environmental Philosophy, the Society for the Advancement of American Philosophy, the Society for Continental Philosophy in a Jewish Context, the Society for Continental Philosophy and Theology, the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences, the Society for the Philosophic Study of Genocide and the Holocaust, and the Society for Social and Political Philosophy: Historical, Continental, and Feminist Perspectives are meeting in conjunction with SPEP.

Executive Committee Elections

James Risser will end his service as Secretary-Treasurer this year. The Executive Committee nominates John Rose of Goucher College for a three-year term as Secretary-Treasurer.

John Rose is Professor of Philosophy at Goucher College. In addition to participating in annual SPEP meetings, he was local host for the 40th annual SPEP conference in 2001. He works in the areas of Nietzsche, Phenomenology, Plato, and Neoplatonism. His most recent publications are: "Multiple Truths and Multiple Narratives: Nietzsche's Perspectivism and the Narrative Structure of The Alexandria Quartet," in Lawrence Durrell and the Greek World, (Susquehanna, 2004), "The Die is Cast: Boundaries of Time, Boundaries of Place," in Earth Ways: Framing Geographical Meanings, (Lexington, 2004) and "Athens, Alexandria, Jerusalem: Heidegger and Levinas on The Other and the City," in Tensional Landscapes: The Dynamics of Boundaries and Placements, Lexington Books (2002). He is also the convener of the Society for Realist/Antirealist Discussion and the Society for the Contemporary Assessment of Platonism, satellite groups of the American Philosophical Association.

Steven Crowell's term of office as Co-Director expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates James Risser of Seattle University for a three-year term as Co-Director.

James Risser is Professor of Philosophy at Seattle University. His primary research interest is in the area of hermeneutics. He is the author of Hermeneutics and the Voice of the Other: Re-reading Gadamer's Philosophical Hermeneutics (SUNY Press, 1997), the editor of Heidegger Toward the Turn: Essays on the Work of the 1930s (SUNY Press, 1999), and co-editor with Walter Brogan of American Continental Philosophy (Indiana University Press, 2000). He has served SPEP for the previous five years as Secretary-Treasurer and in 1994 he was the local host for the meeting in Seattle. He was the Program Chair of the Nietzsche Society in 1988, the director of the Collegium Phaenomenologicum in 1989 and in 1997, the Secretary-Convenor for the 1990 meeting of the Heidegger Conference, and the co-organizer of the 1997 Merleau-Ponty Conference. He is the director of the Western Phenomenology Conference, the co-founder and secretary for the Northwest Society for Phenomenology, Existentialism, and Hermeneutics, and a founding member of the International Hermeneutics Symposium, which meets annually in Freiburg, Germany.

Dan Dahlstrom's term of office as a member-at-large expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates both John Brough of Georgetown University and John Drummond of Fordham University for a three-year term as a member-at-large.

John Brough is Professor and former Chair of the Philosophy Department at Georgetown University. He received his doctorate from Georgetown in 1970. His publications include The Many Faces of Time (Kluwer, 2000), edited with Lester Embree, and translations of Husserliana Volume X: On the Phenomenology of the Consciousness of Internal Time (Kluwer, 1991) and Husserliana Volume XXIII: Phantasy, Image Consciousness, and Memory (Kluwer, forthcoming 2004). He has written essays on a variety of topics involving temporality, as well as papers concerned with issues in aesthetics, representation, perception, and the consciousness of images. He has served on SPEP's Advisory Book Selection Committee and was Chair of local arrangements for SPEP's Thirty-Fifth Annual Meeting, held at Georgetown in 1996.

John Drummond is Professor and Director of Graduate Studies at Fordham University. He has held previous positions at Coe College and Mount Saint Mary's College (serving as chair of the department at both institutions), and has visited at Georgetown University. He is the author of Husserlian Intentionality and Non-Foundational Realism: Noema and Object, and has edited or co-edited four volumes of essays in phenomenology. He has also published more than fifty articles on various topics in phenomenology, including intentionality, grammar and logic, the emotions, and moral, social, and political philosophy in journals such as Philosophy and Phenomenological Research, The Review of Metaphysics, Husserl Studies, Recherches husserliennes, Etudes phénoménologiques, Human Studies, Philosophy Today, Studies in Practical Philosophy, and the former Man and World. His book Historical Dictionary of Husserl's Philosophy is forthcoming, and he is currently working on a book on moral intentionality. He has served on the SPEP Book Advisory Committee, and is general editor of the book series Contributions to Phenomenology (Kluwer).

Registration Fee and Membership Dues

Faculty membership dues: $60

Faculty conference registration fees: $25

Student membership dues: $20

Student members will have no additional fee for conference registration.

Annual SPEP Lecture and Reception at the Eastern APA Meeting

The fourth annual SPEP lecture at the Eastern Division APA meeting will be delivered this year by John McCumber (UCLA): "Philosophy After 9/11." There will be a response by Max Pensky (Binghamton University) and the session will be moderated by Noelle McAfee (University of Massachusetts, Lowell). The meeting is to be held December 27-30, 2004 in Boston, MA at the Boston Marriott Copley Place. In addition, SPEP will again host a reception for all members and friends of continental philosophy. The time and location of the lecture and reception will be announced on the SPEP web site late this summer and also at the Memphis SPEP meeting.

Call for Papers

The forty-fourth annual meeting will be hosted by Utah Valley State in Salt Lake City, Utah, October 20-22, 2005. Instructions for submitting papers and proposals will be sent to members of SPEP in the Fall and will also be available on the SPEP web page at <http://www.spep.org>. The deadline for submissions will be Tuesday, February 1, 2005.

Notes of Appreciation

On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee would like to express its thanks to Tom Nenon and Len Lawlor, co-chairmen of local arrangements, to Amit Sen, book exhibit organizer, to the Academic Enrichment Fund of The College of Arts and Sciences at the University of Memphis, to the Office of the Vice President for Research at the University of Memphis, and to the faculty, staff, and graduate students of the Philosophy Department at the University of Memphis.

Minutes of the 2003 Business Meeting

Steven Crowell called the business meeting to order at 5:53 p.m. on Friday, November 07, 2003.

1. The minutes of the 2002 meeting at Loyola University, Chicago were submitted and accepted without correction.
2. John Brough was appointed parliamentarian.
3. Steven Crowell expressed gratitude to Dan Dahlstrom, David Rasmussen, the philosophy departments and all the student assistants from Boston University and Boston College for their hard work as local hosts.
4. James Risser presented the following statistical information for the 2003 meeting: The Executive Committee received 297 papers for consideration; of these, 105 were submitted by women. The Executive Committee accepted a total of 90 papers; of these, 39 were submitted by women. There are 227 participants on the program; of these, 84 are women. Approximately 480 people registered for the meeting.
5. James Risser presented the budget and treasury report. The opening balance as of September 1, 2001 was $40,991.48. The Society received income of $56,680.60 for a total of $97,672.08. The expenses through August 31, 2002 were $32,625.97. The year-end balance was $65,046.11.
6. David Rasmussen spoke in memory of Kurt Wolff.
7. Reggie Lilly spoke in memory of Michel Haar.
8. Steven Crowell spoke in memory of Richard Owsley.
9. Kelly Oliver recognized Tom Nenon of the University of Memphis, who gave a brief report about the arrangements for SPEP October 28-30, 2004. He announced that the meeting would be held at the same hotel as 1991 and that the room rate will be $129.
10. Kelly Oliver recognized Pierre LaMarche of Utah Valley State College, who extended an invitation to host SPEP in 2005 at either the Marriott or the Hilton in downtown Salt Lake City. The invitation by the Utah Valley State College was accepted by unanimous vote of the membership.
11. Kelly Oliver invited members to consider hosting the 2006 meeting and future meetings. She asked that those interested in hosting a meeting contact any member of the Executive Committee. It was noted that Emory University and Vanderbilt University expressed interest in hosting SPEP in the future.
12. On behalf of the Executive Committee and the Society, Kelly Oliver expressed appreciation to Irene McMullin for her work as the graduate assistant on the SPEP Executive Committee.
13. The term of John McCumber expires with this meeting. On behalf of the Executive Committee and the Society, Kelly Oliver expressed appreciation to John McCumber for his many contributions to SPEP as member-at-large on the Executive Committee.
14. Kelly Oliver conducted the elections for the open position on the Executive Committee. For the at-large member, the Executive Committee nominated Mitchell Aboulafia and Cynthia Willett. No nominations were presented from the floor. Cynthia Willett was elected to the position.

Sophianic Environmentalism in Sergei Bulgakov's
*Philosophy of Economy

Bruce V. Foltz

Bruce Foltz is co-founder and Past President of the International Association for Environmental Philosophy. We wish at this session to honour Professor Foltz for his vision, his commitment of energy and efforts in originating IAEP. In addition to his book on Inhabiting the Earth: Heidegger and Environmental Ethics, he is co-Editor (with Robert Frodeman) of Rethinking Nature: Essays in Environmental Philosophy. He has published in the area of environmental aesthetics and has in recent years moved to researching the relevance for environmental thought of Russian Philosophy and the Hesychastic spirituality of the Byzantine East. His Ph.D. is from Pennsylvania State University and he currently teaches at Eckerd College, Florida.
