Fall Newsletter 1982

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting of the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy will be held at the Pennsylvania State University on October 28-30, 1982.

Information concerning transportation to the University Park Campus of Penn State University and motel accommodations are included at the end of the Official Program Schedule. Please note that you must make arrangements directly with the motel of your choice not later than October 20th.

All sessions of the Society will meet in the Conference Center at Penn State. Room numbers are given in the program schedule. The amount of time allotted for each paper and commentary is listed in brackets at the head of each session. Those presenting papers or commentaries and moderators should pay close attention to these indications. It is important that speakers not exceed the time allowed.

A book display by publishers in the field will be exhibited in the lobby outside Keller Auditorium (Room 104) in the Conference Center.

The annual reception will be held in the Fireside Lounge of the Nittany Lion Inn honoring Herbert Spiegelberg (in his seventy-eighth year) and the appearance of the third revised edition of The Phenomenological Movement (Nijhoff).

A form for payment of 1982-83 dues is enclosed herewith. It should be sent to the SPEP Executive Office or simply paid at the meeting in October. In accordance with the wishes of the Society membership, there will be no registration fee this year.

We are particularly grateful to Professor Joseph J. Kockelmans at Penn State who has kindly taken the responsibility in making the appropriate local arrangements for the meeting.

The Official SPEP Program will begin on Thursday October 28th at 1:00 p.m. and will end on Saturday October 30th at noon. As is traditional, no other societies will hold meetings during this period. However, we are pleased to announce and include the programs for the Nietzsche Society, the Gurwitsch Memorial Lecture, and the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences meetings which are held in conjunction with SPEP. The Nietzsche Society will be held on Thursday morning 9:00 a.m. - 12:00 noon. The Aron Gurwitsch Memorial Lecture will be on Saturday October 30th, at 1:30 - 2:45 p.m. And the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences will hold its sessions from Saturday, October 30th, beginning at 3:00 p.m. and ending on Sunday October 31st at 4:00 p.m.

Official Program

Anyone who presented a paper at the 1981 SPEP meeting in Evanston or who is a speaker at the current Annual Meeting is requested to submit a final version in duplicate to either Professor Silverman or Professor Ihde for possible inclusion in Volume X of Selected Studies in Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy. Beginning with Volume VIII Selected Studies will be lower than in the past and volumes will be issued in both hardback and paper editions. We are also hoping to publish Selected Studies with less delay following the meetings at which papers were delivered.
