FALL NEWSLETTER 1984

The Twenty-third Annual Meeting of the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy will be held in the Urban Life Center at Georgia State University in Atlanta (Georgia).

The Keynote Address by Karl-Otto Apel (University of Frankfurt, West Germany) will, however, be held on the campus of Emory University. The SPEP Annual Reception will follow the Keynote Address (and will be hosted by the Philosophy Department at Emory University.)

THE TWENTY-THIRD ANNUAL MEETING

The twenty-third annual meeting of the Society will be held in The Urban Life Center of Georgia State University in Atlanta. The Society meets in Atlanta at the kind invitation of the Philosophy Departments at Georgia State and Emory Universities. The official SPEP Program begins at noon on October 18th, 1984 and ends on Saturday, October 20th, 1984 at noon. We are also pleased to include with the SPEP Program, the announcements of sessions organized by the Nietzsche Society and the Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences as well as the Aron Gurwitsch Memorial Lecture which are held in conjunction with SPEP.

The Nietzsche Society session is held on Thursday morning, October 18th, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon in the Urban Life Center Room 302.

The Aron Gurwitsch Memorial Lecture, this year by Robert Sokolowski, is held from 12:45 to 2:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 20th, 1984, in the Urban Life Center Auditorium, Room 320.

The Society for Phenomenology and the Human Sciences holds its sessions from Saturday, October 20th, 1984 at 2:15 p.m. to Sunday, October 21, 1984 at 12:00 noon, in the Urban Life Center Auditorium Room 320 (Saturday) and in the American Hotel Auditorium (Sunday morning).

TRANSPORTATION TO GEORGIA STATE AND THE CONFERENCE HOTELS

An Airport Shuttle leaves every 30 minutes from the Atlanta airport for the American Hotel and the Peachtree Plaza Hotel.

From the hotels to the Urban Life Center on the Georgia State campus take the MARTA Transportation System from the Peachtree Center station (entrance under the Peachtree Plaza Hotel) direction south to Five Points Station. Change to direction east, first stop Georgia State Station. (The fare is 60¢ exact change).

By foot, take Peachtree St. down to Central City Park; cross the Park; turn left on Edgewood Ave.; right on Ivy St.; and left on Decatur St. (Travel by either train or foot is about 10-15 minutes).

On Friday, October 19th, our hosts are providing bus service from the American Motor Hotel at 7:15 p.m. to Emory University. Busses will return to the American Hotel at 11:15 p.m. and at 12:15 a.m. from Emory.

These restaurants are open on Saturday and Sunday while many other downtown restaurants may be closed during the weekend. A full list of local restaurants will be distributed at the SPEP Registration Desk on the second floor of the Urban Life Center.

PUBLISHERS' BOOK EXHIBIT

A publishers' book display will be held in the Urban Life Building Room 206 at Georgia State University throughout the duration of the SPEP Conference. The exhibits will be open from 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m. on Thursday, October 18th, from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Friday, October 19th, and from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday, October 20th. This display is organized by the Society in cooperation with publishers specializing in continental philosophy and related concerns. You are cordially invited to visit the exhibits and to order books at the conference discounts offered by publishers.

ANNUAL SPEP DUES

Dues are $10 for a regular membership in the Society; $5 for a student membership. Dues cover the period of one year beginning September 1st, 1984. A form is enclosed and is to be returned with a check made payable in U.S. Dollars to SPEP. Send to Professor Hugh J. Silverman, SPEP Executive Office, Department of Philosophy, SUNY/Stony Brook, Stony Brook, N.Y. 11794.

In order to benefit from the full year membership, be sure to send in your dues right away. If you did not pay your dues for 1983-84 and wish to do so, you may pay for both years at the same time. We try to keep dues low. However, we do depend upon your contribution each year.

CALL FOR PAPERS -- 1985

Submissions are invited for the Twenty-fourth Annual SPEP meetings to be held at Loyola University of Chicago on October 17-19, 1985. Papers, proposals for symposia, panels or workshops, and suggestions for the annual meeting should be sent in duplicate to the SPEP Co-Directors, Department of Philosophy, SUNY at Stony Brook, Stony Brook, N.Y. 11794. Deadline for submissions is December 1st, 1984.

SPEP PUBLICATIONS

Recent SPEP volumes already published (and available to Members at a discount) include:

Bruzina & Wilshire, Phenomenology: Dialogues and Bridges
(State University of New York Press, 1982)
Mc Bride & Schrag, Phenomenology in a Pluralistic Context
(State University of New York Press, 1983)

Forthcoming are two new volumes (drawn from SPEP meetings in 1980-83), scheduled for publication in 1985:

Silverman & Ihde, Hermeneutics and Deconstruction
(State University of New York Press, June 1985)
Ihde & Silverman, Descriptions
(State University of New York Press, December 1985)

These books incorporate essays selected from the annual meetings and reflect some of the best work accomplished at SPEP. They indicate recent directions and current concerns in continental philosophy as practiced and discussed in North America. Papers included in the Bruzina-Wilshire volume are drawn from meetings between 1975 and 1977; those in the McBride-Schrag volume are selected from the 1977-80 meetings. Please support these SPEP projects by bringing them to the attention of your college or university libraries, by recommending them to friends, and even by purchasing copies for yourselves.

MINUTES OF THE 1983 ANNUAL SPEP BUSINESS MEETING

The Twenty-second Annual Meeting of the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy was held at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel in St. Louis, Missouri on October 20-22, 1983. At the annual business meeting, which was held on Thursday evening October 20th, Professor Hugh J. Silverman was re-elected to a second three-year term along with Professor Donn Welton (replacing Professor Don Ihde) for a three-year term as Executive Co-Directors of the Society.

Professor Thomas R. Flynn (Emory University) was elected to a three year term on the SPEP Executive Committee replacing Professor Bernard Dauenhauer (University of Georgia) who completed his three-year term. Continuing members are Joseph J. Kockelmans (Pennsylvania State University) with two years remaining and Harold Alderman (Sonoma State University) with one year remaining.

Professors William S. Hamrick (Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville) and Professor James Marsh (St. Louis University) were thanked for their contribution and efforts as Local Arrangements Coordinators for the twenty-second annual meeting in St. Louis.

The membership accepted the invitation to hold the twenty-fourth annual meeting at Loyola University of Chicago. (These meetings will be held on October 17-19, 1985 and Professor Thomas Sheehan will serve as local arrangements coordinator for the conference.) The membership also accepted an invitation to hold the twenty-fifth annual conference in Boston for 1986. (The final acceptance of this offer is conditional upon receipt of a formal written invitation with the usual commitments to cover all local costs of running the conference and to not require a registration fee.)

The membership was reminded of the Call for Papers, Proposals, and Suggestions for the 1984 annual meetings to be held on October 18-20, 1984 in Atlanta at Georgia State University and at Emory University. All submissions are to be in duplicate and sent to the SPEP Co-Directors no later than December 1st since the Executive Committee forms a preliminary program for the subsequent year at its Winter Meeting during the APA, Eastern Division convention at the end of December.

SOCIETY FOR PHENOMENOLOGY AND EXISTENTIAL PHILOSOPHY

The Twenty-Third Annual Meeting

October 18-20, 1984

OFFICIAL PROGRAM

All sessions of the Society -- except Friday evening -- will be held in the Urban Life (UL) Conference Center, Georgia State University.

SPECIAL NOTE TO ALL PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

Time allocations for paper presentations should be strictly observed. A code for the number of minutes allotted for each symposium, panel, workshop, or single paper is given in brackets at the head of each period (whether plenary or concurrent). This code indicates the amount of time reserved for each presentation in the order of presentation. Thus "Concurrent Papers (30/10)" means that the Speaker has 30 minutes and the Commentator 10 minutes. Moderators should observe time limitations precisely. This arrangement constitutes an explicit contract among speakers, moderators, and members of the audience.

PUBLICATION NOTICE TO 1984 PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

All papers presented at SPEP annual meetings shall be made available to the Executive Co-Directors for first consideration. Papers presented in the 1984-87 series will be reviewed for possible inclusion in the next two volumes (namely, volumes XII and XIII which will be edited by Professors Silverman and Welton). Symposium, panel, workshop, and single papers should be submitted to the SPEP Co-Directors in duplicate within a month following the conference at which they were presented. Commentaries and current book discussions will normally not be included. Typically, major symposium and panel sessions will be selected. All papers accepted or invited for presentation at SPEP meetings shall not be submitted elsewhere for publication without official notification that the paper will not be included in one of the SPEP volumes. The Co-Directors will attempt to notify program participants as soon as possible concerning the disposition of their papers. Although participants must observe strictly the time limitations when presenting papers at the SPEP conferences, submitted essays may be in expanded and amplified form. They should not however exceed 20 pages in typescript.

Local Arrangements

The Society is especially grateful to Professor Angel Medina of Georgia State University who has worked diligently in cooperation with Professor Rudolf Makkreel and other members of the Philosophy Department at Emory University to prepare local arrangements for the 1984 annual conference. The work of the SPEP Co-Directors has been greatly facilitated by their generous efforts.

SPEP Executive Co-Directors

Hugh J. Silverman, SUNY at Stony Brook
Donn Welton, SUNY at Stony Brook

SPEP Executive Committee

Harold Alderman, Sonoma State University
Thomas R. Flynn, Emory University
Joseph J. Kockelmans, Pennsylvania State University
