Society For Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy

FALL NEWSLETTER 1989

The Twenty-Eighth Annual Meeting of the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy will be held at Duquesne University, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, on October 12-14. The program officially begins at noon on Thursday, the twelfth, and concludes with a reception Saturday night.

Special Note to all Participants

Allotted time for each paper is 30 minutes. Allotted time for each commentary is 10 minutes. Each person on the program should stay within the established time limits. Please note: paper abstracts submitted by authors are available in the registration area.

Accommodations:

Ramada Hotel in downtown Pittsburgh. Each room is a "Junior Suite" and available for either single or double occupancy at the rate of $59 per night. Five minutes cab ride from Duquesne. The University hopes to provide shuttle service. Reservations can be made directly by those attending the conference by calling (412) 281-5800. Mention that you will be attending the SPEP conference at Duquesne. The Ramada has asked us to inform those planning to attend the conference to book their rooms at least three weeks in advance of the conference.

Oct 14

Hyatt Hotel in downtown Pittsburgh. It is also a short ride from Duquesne, and we hope to provide shuttle service. Single or double occupancy at the rate of $75 per night. Reservations can be made by calling (412) 471-1234 and identifying yourself as a conference participant. The Hyatt would also like reservations to be made at least three weeks in advance.

We have been unable to secure any rooms for conference use in the on-campus dormitories.

Travel Directions to Pittsburgh:

Air: From the airport, a shuttle service is provided by the Airlines Transportation Co. to the downtown Hyatt. From the Hyatt, those staying at the Ramada can take a taxi. The cost of the shuttle is $8 dollars.

Train, Bus: The Greyhound and the Amtrack stations are both centrally located in downtown Pittsburgh, and a five minute cab ride completes the journey to either the Ramada or the Hyatt.

Car: Car routes in Pittsburgh can be obtained by calling (412) 434-6500.

Child Care Services:

Duquesne will be unable to provide on-campus child care for the conference participants. We have instead made arrangements for "home-care" with the Child Care Network. Under this arrangement, those participants wishing child care facilities will be provided with the names, numbers, and addresses of people in the vicinity who are willing to provide child care
