

LUC—Marquette Phenomenology Workshop
Marquette University, Milwaukee, WI, May 21st & 22nd

May 21st

11:00—12:00 Session I

Speaker: Tom Hansberger (Marquette University):
“Is Husserl an Externalist?”

12:15—1:15 Session II

Speaker: Rebecca Scott (Loyola University Chicago):
“Fecundity and Subjectivity in Totality and Infinity”

1:20—2:45 Lunch Break

2:50—3:50 Session III

Speaker: Dana Fritz (Marquette University)
“The Crisis of Autism: An Autistic Person Looks at Husserl

4:00—5:00 Session IV

Speaker: Sean Petranovich (Loyola University Chicago):
“Spatiality in Phenomenology and a Model of Citizenship”

May 22nd

9:00—10:00 Session I

Speaker: Jered Janes (Marquette University):
“Un-Naturalizing Phenomenology: Making a Case for Transcendental Phenomenology in the 21st Century”

10:15—11:15 Session II

Speaker: Justin Nordin (Loyola University Chicago):
“Husserl on Crisis and the Possibility of Philosophy”

11:20—12:45 Lunch Break

12:50—1:50 Session III

Speaker: Jean Clifford (Loyola University Chicago):
“An Exposition of Heidegger’s Account of paideia”

2:00—3:00 Session IV

Speaker: Tyler Friedman (Marquette University):
“Dasein in the Cave: The Priority of Fundamental Ontology and the Interpretation of Prehistoric Art”

