All sessions will be held at the Hilton Salt Lake City Center, located at 255 South West Temple, Salt Lake City, UT, 84101. A map of the hotel’s location and other hotel information can be found at http://www3.hilton.com/en/hotels/utah/hilton-salt-lake-city-center-SLCCCHH/maps-directions/index.html.

Hotel Accommodations
Lodging for conference participants has been arranged at the Hilton Salt Lake City Center, located at 255 South West Temple, Salt Lake City, UT, 84101. For reservations call 801-328-2000 and mention group code SPEP 2016 or book online at http://group.hilton.com/SocietyPhenomenologyExistentialPhilosophy.

Conference rate: $139 (single or double), $154 (triple occupancy), $169 (quadruple occupancy). All guestrooms are subject to the city’s and state’s 12.6% occupancy tax. Room rate includes complimentary wireless internet in guestrooms. Other hotel amenities include a fitness center, pool, a restaurant, and a bar. Hotel parking is $15 for overnight self-parking, or $5 for daytime self-parking.

Note that the hotel’s Trofi Restaurant will be open as a bar in the evenings during the conference.

The Hilton Salt Lake City Center is centrally located within two blocks from the City Creek Mall, three blocks from the historic Temple Square, and within walking distance to numerous eating and shopping options. The hotel is also located on the Salt Lake City light rail system (UTA TRAX), which is free within the downtown area. TRAX also runs to and from Salt Lake International Airport. Salt Lake City is well served by Uber and Lyft for more distant options, or the hotel concierge can arrange taxis.

Note: Room reservations must be made by 5:00 p.m. on September 28, 2016. Rooms at the conference rate are limited and are not guaranteed after this date.

Travel Information
Directions for all modes of transportation are also posted on the SPEP website: www.spep.org.

Audiovisual Equipment
All audiovisual equipment arrangements for the main program have already been made. Inquiries or confirmations may be sent to Eric Murphy (spepassistant@gmail.com). Affiliate groups are responsible for the cost of audiovisual equipment and must contact Miranda Allen at 801-238-4827 (miranda.allen@hilton.com) or Michael Shaw (michael.shaw@uvu.edu). Arrangements must be made by September 1, 2016.

Publishers’ Book Exhibit
A publishers’ book exhibit will be held in the exhibit room, Grand Ballroom A & B, at the Hilton Salt Lake City Center. The exhibit will open on Thursday at 12:00 p.m. and close at 5:30 p.m.; it will run from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. on Friday and from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. The display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social, and political theory. Publishers offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.

Website
The complete program is available on the SPEP website at www.spep.org.
Publication Notice
SPEP retains the right of first review for papers presented at the annual meeting. Each presenter should submit their paper via the online submission system of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy at www.editorialmanager.com/jsp/ by December 1, 2016. (You will need to create an author profile and note the manuscript type as “special issue article (SPEP);” the online system will guide you through the steps to upload your submission.) Papers submitted should be no longer than 4500 words inclusive of notes. Papers should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style and in MS Word format (no PDFs). If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by early February 2017.

Executive Committee Elections
Brian Schroeder’s term of office as Co-Director expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates Andrew Cutrofello of Loyola University Chicago for a three-year term as Co-Director.

Andrew Cutrofello is Professor of Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago. He has been at Loyola since 1994. Before that, he spent five years teaching at St. Mary’s College in Notre Dame, Indiana. He did his graduate work at Northwestern University, writing his doctoral dissertation under the direction of John McCumber. He has published five monographs, including All for Nothing: Hamlet’s Negativity (MIT, 2014), Continental Philosophy: A Contemporary Introduction (Routledge, 2005), and The Owl at Dawn: A Sequel to Hegel’s Phenomenology of Spirit (SUNY, 1995). His most recent book, co-authored with Paul Livingston, is The Problems of Contemporary Philosophy: A Critical Guide for the Unaffiliated (Polity, 2015). With Livingston and Jeffrey Bell he has edited Beyond the Analytic-Continental Divide: Pluralist Philosophy in the Twenty-First Century (Routledge, 2015). Many of Cutrofello’s recent articles and book chapters have been about Shakespeare. He is currently working on a book about philosophical poetry. Since 2008 he has edited the Continental Philosophy section of Philosophy Compass. He has served as Member-at-Large on the SPEP Executive Committee (2008–11) and on the SPEP Book Selection Advisory Committee (2006–07).

Dermot Moran’s term of office as Member-at-Large expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates both John J. Drummond of Fordham University and Christian Lotz of Michigan State University for a three-year term as Member-at-Large.

John J. Drummond is the Robert Southwell, S.J. Distinguished Professor in the Humanities and Professor of Philosophy at Fordham University in New York, where he also serves as chair of the department. He previously taught at Coe College and Mount Saint Mary's College in Maryland, and he has visited at Georgetown University. He is the author of Husserlian Intentionality and Non-Foundational Realism: Noema and Object (Kluwer, 1990) and A Historical Dictionary of Husserl’s Philosophy (Scarecrow Press, 2008). He has edited or co-edited five collections of articles on phenomenology, including Phenomenology of the Noema (Kluwer, 1992), The Truthful and the Good (Kluwer, 1996), Phenomenological Approaches to Moral Philosophy (Kluwer, 2002), and Husserl’s Logical Investigations in the New Century: Western and Chinese Perspectives (Springer, 2007). He has published approximately ninety articles on Husserl, phenomenology, intentionality, emotions, axiology, and ethics in numerous anthologies and journals. He has served SPEP both as a member of the Book Selection Advisory Committee and as parliamentarian at business meetings.
Christian Lotz is Professor of Philosophy at Michigan State University. He received his PhD from the University of Marburg, Germany, and spent two years as a research fellow at Emory University. Lotz works in the history of continental philosophy, especially in the German tradition of phenomenology and critical theory. He also works in French social-political philosophy (such as Foucault, Badiou and Rancière) and in continental aesthetics (especially hermeneutics). He has published widely on figures ranging from Husserl, Heidegger, Gadamer, and Levinas to Marx and Adorno. His publications include: From Affectivity to Subjectivity: Revisiting Edmund Husserl’s Phenomenology (Palgrave, 2008); The Capitalist Schema: Time, Money, and the Culture of Abstraction (Lexington, 2014); The Art of Gerhard Richter: Hermeneutics, Images, Meaning (Bloomsbury, 2015); Phenomenology and the Non-Human Animal: At the Limits of Experience, ed. with C. Painter (Springer, 2007); and Vom Leib zum Selbst: Kritische Analysen zu Husserl and Heidegger (Alber, 2005). Lotz has served as a member of the SPEP Book Selection Advisory Committee (2006–07).

The Executive Committee has a new position available as a result of the proposal to expand the Executive Committee that was passed at the business meeting in Atlanta in October 2015 (the proposal, which constitutes a Bylaw change, passed by more than a 2/3 majority in a balloted vote). The Executive Committee nominates both Ann V. Murphy of the University of New Mexico and Yannik Thiem of Villanova University for a three-year term as Member-at-Large.

Ann V. Murphy is Associate Professor of Philosophy at the University of New Mexico in Albuquerque. She received her PhD in Philosophy from the University of Memphis in 2002, and has held positions at Mount Holyoke College, the University of New South Wales in Sydney, Australia, and Fordham University. She works in the areas of contemporary continental philosophy, phenomenology, political philosophy, and the philosophy of gender. Her monograph, Violence and the Philosophical Imaginary, was published by SUNY University Press in 2012. Murphy has published widely on the topics of embodiment, violence, and vulnerability, with numerous articles in such journals as Continental Philosophy Review, Hypatia, Philosophy Today, and philoSOPHIA. She is currently at work on two research projects, the first on phenomenology and hunger and the second on a critique of transcendental violence. Murphy has served on the SPEP Book Selection Advisory Committee (2010–12) and is currently a member of the SPEP LGBTQ Advocacy Committee. She has previously served on the APA Eastern Division Program Committee (2012–14).

Yannik Thiem is Associate Professor of Philosophy at Villanova University. Thiem received his first doctorate from the University of Tübingen in Germany in Theology and his second doctorate from the University of California at Berkeley in Rhetoric. Thiem specializes in critical theory, feminist theory, queer theory, and social and political philosophy. He is the author of Unbecoming Subjects: Judith Butler, Moral Philosophy, and Critical Responsibility (Fordham University Press, 2008). His second book Ripples of Redemptive Time: The Ethics and Politics of Temporality in Hermann Cohen and Walter Benjamin is under contract with Fordham University Press. He has published articles on the Early Frankfurt School, on politics and religion, and in feminist and queer theory in journals such as Telos, Social Research, Law and Critique, and MLN. Together with Gabriel Rockhill, Thiem co-directs the book series Reinventing Critical Theory (Rowman & Littlefield International). He has served on the SPEP Book Selection Advisory Committee (2014–16) and currently serves on the APA Eastern Division Advisory Committee to the Program Committee (2014–17).
Open SPEP Executive Committee Position for Secretary-Treasurer
Qualifications: familiarity with SPEP; experience with administrative and financial procedures appropriate for running a large international academic organization; PhD in philosophy, with specialization in continental philosophy or in any of the areas usually represented on the SPEP annual program. The term for this position is subject to annual review, but is typically a 3-year position. The position comes with an honorarium. Preference will be given to SPEP members. Please send by email attachment a letter of interest and CV to SPEP Co-Director Alia Al-Saji (alia.al-saji@mcgill.ca). The deadline for applications is January 5, 2017.

Annual SPEP Lecture and Reception at the APA Eastern Division Meeting
The sixteenth annual SPEP lecture at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting will be delivered this year by Walter Brogan of Villanova University. The title of his lecture will be “Derrida on Democracy and the Politics of Sovereignty.” There will be a response by Anne O’Byrne of Stony Brook University and the session will be moderated by Amy Allen of Pennsylvania State University. The date and time of the session will be announced on the SPEP website. A reception for all SPEP members and friends of continental philosophy will immediately follow the lecture. The APA Eastern Division meeting will be held January 4–7, 2017 at the Renaissance Baltimore Harborplace Hotel in Baltimore, MD.

Call for Papers
The fifty-sixth annual SPEP meeting will be hosted by the University of Memphis, October 19–21, 2017, in Memphis, TN. Papers and panels from diverse philosophical perspectives in all areas of continental philosophy are welcome. All submissions must be submitted electronically. Instructions for submitting papers and proposals will be available on the SPEP website at www.spep.org. The submission deadline is January 20, 2017. All submissions must be sent as electronic attachments in MS Word or PDF file format to Emily Zakin at zakinspep@gmail.com.

Prizes
SPEP is pleased to offer three prizes for superlative submissions: the best submission by a junior scholar, the best submission by a graduate student, and the best paper in feminist philosophy. The Junior Scholar Award and the Graduate Student Award are monetary prizes. To be eligible for the SPEP Junior Scholar Award you must have earned a PhD in the last five years (no earlier than 2011). All currently enrolled graduate students are eligible for the SPEP Graduate Student Award. Each prize is $500.00 plus a hotel and travel allowance. The runners-up for each of these two prizes will be featured in the program as SPEP Junior Scholar Award Honorable Mention and SPEP Graduate Student Award Honorable Mention.

The Iris Marion Young Prize for the best submission in feminist philosophy is awarded by the SPEP Committee on the Status of Women. Authors who wish to be considered for this prize should self-designate their papers for consideration when submitting them to SPEP. Papers submitted for the Iris Marion Young Prize are also eligible to receive other SPEP prizes.

Notes of Appreciation
On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee would like to express its gratitude to the Philosophy and Humanities Department at Utah Valley University, especially Michael Shaw, local contact and organizer, and Pierre Lamarche and Adam Donahoo, book exhibit coordinators. Thanks are due to Allen Hill for his graphic design and his assistance to the local hosts. The Society also extends thanks to Shannon Mussett, Utah Valley University, for her help assisting the local hosts with the organization of the conference. Moreover, we would like to thank Kristine McLain, Ethan Johnson, and all of the student volunteers.

The Executive Committee would like to thank the following for their generous financial support of the conference: The Office of the Vice President of Academic Affairs at Utah Valley University, the College of Humanities and Social Sciences (CHSS) at Utah Valley University, the Department of Philosophy and Humanities at Utah Valley University, and the Department of Philosophy at Brigham Young University. The Executive Committee would also like to thank Christopher P. Long for his work as webmaster and the Office of the Dean of Arts at McGill University for providing the funding for our graduate student assistant.

Minutes of the 2015 SPEP Business Meeting

Brian Schroeder called the meeting to order at 5:35 p.m. on Friday, October 9, 2015.

1. Tom Nenon was appointed parliamentarian. Janet Donohue was appointed time-keeper.

2. The minutes of the 2014 meeting in New Orleans, LA were submitted and accepted without correction.

3. On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee would like to express its gratitude to the Philosophy Department at Emory University, especially Andrew J. Mitchell, local contact and organizer; Noëlle McAfee and Cynthia Willett, book exhibit coordinators; John Lysaker and Dilek Huseyinzadegan, registration coordinators; Emory Philosophy Department Chair John Stuhrl, conference A/V coordinator; along with all the student volunteers from Emory. Thanks are also due to Allen Hill for his cover design and graphics expertise, and Christopher P. Long for his work as webmaster. The Executive Committee would also like to thank the following for their generous financial support of the conference: the office of Dean Robin Forman of the Emory College of Arts and Sciences; the office of Dean Lisa Tedesco of Emory’s Laney Graduate School and its New Thinkers/New Leaders fund; the office of Provost Claire Sterk; and the Emory University departments and programs of African-American Studies; French & Italian; Classics; Comparative Literature; English; Film & Media Studies; German; History; the Institute for the Liberal Arts; Philosophy; Religion; the Graduate Division of Religion; Sociology; and Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies. The Committee would also like to thank the Dean of McGill University’s Faculty of Arts, the Dean of Stony Brook University’s College of Arts and Sciences, the Stony Brook Philosophy Department, and our graduate student assistants.

4. Emily Zakin presented the following statistical information for the 2015 meeting. The Executive Committee considered 306 papers. Of the 306 papers submitted, 128 were accepted resulting in an overall acceptance rate of 42%. Of the 306 papers submitted, 193 were authored by men and 84 were accepted, resulting in an acceptance rate of 44% for men. Of the 306 papers submitted, 113 were authored by women and 44 were accepted resulting in an acceptance rate of 39% for women. There were approximately 450 registered as attending the meeting. The number needed to reach a quorum at the business meeting is 45.

5. Emily Zakin presented the budget and treasury report. For the 2014–15 fiscal year, SPEP’s total income was $93,161.67 and our total expense was $87,420.63, for a net income of $5,741.04. Note that this net income does not yet include the cost of the JSP SPEP special issue. SPEP is effectively breaking even this year. To put this in comparison with the 2013–14 fiscal year, our income then was $88,485.17 and our total expense was $109,155.38, for a net loss of $20,670.21. The difference between years is in part attributable to the vagaries of the fiscal year. As of this meeting, SPEP has approximately $48,000.00 in reserve.

7. The term of Falguni Sheth expired with this meeting. Alia Al-Saji expressed gratitude to Falguni Sheth for her many contributions to SPEP as a Member-at-Large.
8. The term of Amy Allen expired with this meeting. Brian Schroeder expressed gratitude to Amy Allen for her many contributions to SPEP as returning Member-at-Large.

9. The term of Jessica Sims expired with this meeting. Brian Schroeder expressed gratitude to Jessica Sims for her many contributions to SPEP as Graduate Assistant.

10. Alan Schrift conducted the elections for the open position of Member-at-Large on the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee nominated Ellen Feder and Shannon Sullivan. There were no nominations from the floor. Shannon Sullivan was elected by ballot. Gratitude was expressed to Ellen Feder for her willingness to serve.

11. Dermot Moran recognized Michael Shaw, who gave a report on behalf of Utah Valley University about the arrangements for SPEP October 20–22, 2016. All events will be held at the Hilton Salt Lake City Center in Salt Lake City, UT. The room rate is $139 (for single and double occupancy). The local organizers will be Michael Shaw and Pierre Lamarche.

12. Dermot Moran recognized Tom Nenon and Mary Beth Mader, who gave a report on behalf of the University of Memphis about the arrangements for SPEP 2017. All events will be held at the Sheraton Memphis Downtown Hotel in Memphis, TN. The room rate is $151. The local organizers will be Tom Nenon and Mary Beth Mader. Kelly Oliver and Ellen T. Armour of Vanderbilt University will be co-sponsoring the conference.

13. On behalf of the Executive Committee, Dermot Moran invited members to serve as local hosts or co-hosts of an annual SPEP meeting. Those interested in hosting a meeting may contact any member of the Executive Committee.

14. Amy Allen recognized Elaine Miller, who gave a report on the Committee on the Status of Women. The winner of the Iris Marion Young Prize was Shiloh Whitney of Fordham University. The term of Elaine Miller expired. The Committee on the Status of Women nominated Perry Zurn for the vacant position. Perry Zurn was elected by acclamation.

15. Amy Allen recognized Jami Weinstein who gave a report on the LGBTQ Advocacy Committee. The term of Jami Weinstein expired. The LGBTQ Advocacy Committee nominated Ann V. Murphy for the vacant position on the committee. Ann V. Murphy was elected by acclamation.

17. Amy Allen recognized Mary Beth Mader who gave a report on the Advocacy Committee. The term of Mary Beth Mader expired at this meeting. The Advocacy Committee nominated Brad Elliot Stone for the vacant position. Brad Elliot Stone was elected by acclamation.

18. Alia Al-Saji announced a decision to increase conference registration fees for future SPEP conferences. The Executive Committee distributed a detailed rationale and there was discussion from the floor.

19. Brian Schroeder re-introduced a proposal for expansion of the Executive Committee. This motion had been tabled at the 2014 business meeting. The motion was discussed by the membership. The motion was approved by ballot by a greater than 2/3 majority.
20. On behalf of the Executive Committee, Amy Allen announced the two prize recipients for 2015. The Junior Scholar Prize Recipient was Erica Harris from McGill University for her paper, “Side-Stepping the Problem of the Unconscious: Why We Ought to Reframe the Lacan/Merleau-Ponty Debate in Bodily Terms.” The Graduate Student Prize Recipient was Jasmine Wallace from Villanova University for her paper, “The Fragments of the Disaster: Blanchot and Galeano on Decolonial Writing.” The Executive Committee also recognized the members who received the Honorable Mentions for their papers. Robert Trumbull from the University of Washington Bothell was the recipient of the Junior Scholar Honorable Mention for his paper, “Power and the ‘Drive for Mastery’: Derrida’s Freud and the Debate with Foucault.” Martijn Buijs from Johns Hopkins University was the recipient of the Graduate Student Honorable Mention for his paper, “Theology, Onto-theology, and Eschatology in Schelling’s Late Thought.”

21. Dermot Moran made several announcements on behalf of the Executive Committee.

A. The fifteenth annual SPEP lecture at the Eastern Division APA meeting will be delivered by Ladelle McWhorter of the University of Richmond. The title of her paper will be “Neo-Liberal Subjects or New Materialist Lives: A Genealogically Informed Inquiry into Possibilities.” There will be a response by Linda Martin Alcoff of Hunter College and the CUNY Graduate Center. Edward Casey of Stony Brook University will moderate the session. The session will be held on Thursday, January 7, 2016 from 5:15 p.m. – 7:15 p.m. A reception for all SPEP members and friends of continental philosophy will immediately follow the lecture. The Eastern APA Meeting will be held January 6–9, 2016 at the Washington Marriott in Washington DC.

B. If presenters would like to have their papers considered for publication in the SPEP special issue of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy they may send two electronic copies to the current Co-Directors, Alia Al-Saji and Brian Schroeder, by December 1, 2015. There is an overall limit of 4500 words inclusive of notes for each submission. Only individual papers are considered, not full panels or books sessions. Final decisions regarding the papers to be included in the volume will be made by January 30, 2016. Please note that if you have not paid your annual membership dues to SPEP by the close of the registration desk on Saturday at noon, then your paper will not be considered for publication.

C. Please note that there is a new deadline for the submission of papers for next year’s SPEP conference. The new deadline is January 20, 2016.

22. Alia Al-Saji invited new business and announcements from the membership. There were several announcements from the floor.

Brian Schroeder adjourned the meeting.

Lived Experience from the Inside Out
Social and Political Philosophy in Edith Stein
Antonio Calcagno

Edward Goodwin Ballard Book Prize in Phenomenology, 2015

“Calcagno has certainly given us a work that will be required reading for any scholarship on Stein’s early texts as well as for any significant engagement with theories of empathy and intersubjectivity.” — International Philosophical Quarterly

The New Science of Communication
Reconsidering McLuhan’s Message for Our Modern Moment
Anthony M. Wachs

An original contribution to scholarship on McLuhan and media ecology. Scholars interested in interactions of media with human feeling, thought, and behavior have forced modern presuppositions onto readings of McLuhan, but Wachs corrects this misreading by restoring classical and medieval communication theory as an alternative to modern rationalist theories.

The Myth of Normative Secularism
Religion and Politics in the Democratic Homeworld
Daniel D. Miller

Recent political developments, such as the rise of global Islamism and the American religious Right, have challenged our assumptions about politics, religion, secularization, and democracy. To articulate a theory of the social that can truly account for the complex relationship of religion and politics, Miller turns to Husserl’s generative phenomenology to provide an innovative and distinctive way forward.

The Qualitative Vision for Psychology
An Invitation to a Human Science Approach
edited by Constance T. Fischer, Leswin Laubscher & Roger Brooke

A comprehensive look at psychology conceived as a human science, bolstering the view that a purely natural science approach ignores much about the very experience of being human. Here, proponents and practitioners explore issues as diverse as empathy, cultural history, apartheid, sexual assault, fetishes, and our natural environment.

Announcing
a new Manuscript Prize

The Simon Silverman Phenomenology Center
at Duquesne University

and

Duquesne University Press

are pleased to announce the inaugural

Duquesne Manuscript Prize in Phenomenology

Awarded to a solely authored manuscript that is phenomenological in nature and written in English, preferably in the fields of philosophy, psychology, religious studies, or communication, but all academic fields of study will be considered. Preference will be given as well to manuscripts that would represent the author’s first published book. Manuscripts will be reviewed by an interdisciplinary panel of scholars. The deadline for manuscript submissions is April 1, 2017.

The prize of $1,000 will be awarded annually, beginning in 2017, and the selected manuscript will be published by Duquesne University Press, joining a list of distinguished titles in the field.

The winner of the competition will be announced at the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy meeting each fall and on the Duquesne University Press and Simon Silverman Phenomenology Center websites.

For more information, including additional guidelines, please visit www.dupress.duq.edu or email dupress@duq.edu.

“One of the most comprehensive, well-researched, and accessible guides for teachers that I have ever seen.”

—James Lang, Chronicle of Higher Education

Teach Philosophy 101 (TΦ101) is a unique collection of open access resources for philosophy teachers. It presents strategies and planning tools for faculty members and graduate assistants who teach philosophy courses, especially at the introductory level. The mission of TΦ101 is to enhance undergraduate student learning in introductory philosophy courses by providing free, user-friendly strategies and resources to everyone in the academic community. All materials are provided on a Creative Commons open source license. Download whatever you need.

www.teachphilosophy101.org

TΦ101 was created by John Immerwahr with support from Villanova University. The site has been redesigned by the Philosophy Documentation Center, and we are providing a permanent home for this great resource. Prof. Erin Tarver of Oxford College of Emory University now edits the site, with support from Oxford College of Emory University.
