As a special addition this year, there will be a showing of the autobiographical film with Jean-Paul Sartre by Alexandre Astruc and Michel Contat entitled Sartre by Himself. Time allocations for Papers:

Participants in the official SPEP Program should note the numbers in brackets corresponding to the minutes allotted for each paper and commentary. Moderators as well as those presenting papers or commentaries should adhere strictly to these time limits. It is very important that speakers not exceed the times indicated. For instance, [20/20/20] following the "Current Research" session head means that each of the three speakers will have a maximum of 20 minutes for his or her presentation.

Deadline for 1983 Papers:

Any symposium, panel, workshop, or single paper should be sent to other members of the session including the Moderator and the Co-Directors of the Society no later than September 20th.

Book Exhibit:

A publishers' book exhibition will be held in the Tiara Lounge Area on the 26th floor of the Chase Park Plaza Hotel.

Annual Reception:

The Annual Reception will take place on Friday evening from about 9:15 p.m. after the invited lecture by Professor Vincent Descombes in the Tiara Lounges on the 26th floor of the Chase Park Plaza Hotel.

Annual SPEP Dues:

A form is enclosed for your 1983-84 dues. Dues are $10. for a regular membership in the Society and $5. for a student membership. Dues cover the period of one year beginning September 1st, 1983. Send the form to Professor Hugh J. Silverman, SPEP Executive Office, Department of Philosophy, SUNY/Stony Brook, Stony Brook, N.Y. 11794.

In order to benefit from the full year membership, be sure to send in your dues right away. If you did not pay your dues for 1982-83, please include them with your payment. We have tried to keep the dues low -- in comparison to other societies. However, we do depend upon your contribution of annual dues each year.

No registration fee is assessed at the annual conference. Dues cover the basic costs of planning and running meetings of the Society. Members receive SPEP Newsletters by first class mail. Members also benefit from publishers' mailings and any special discounts offered. A computer-based set of mailing labels are maintained at the Executive Office and can be made available to publishers or individuals who wish to communicate with members of the Society. A new up-to-date list will be ready at the time of the annual conference. Any changes of address or corrections on current labels should be sent in as soon as possible, along with 1983-84 dues.

Local Arrangements:

We are particularly grateful to Professor William S. Hamrick (Department of Philosophy, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville) and Professor James L. Marsh (Department of Philosophy, St. Louis University) for kindly shouldering the responsibilities of local arrangements for the 1983 meeting in St. Louis.

Publication of Selected Papers: from SPEP Conferences:

Beginning with Volume VIII, Selected Studies in Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy is published by SUNY Press. [Previous volumes are still available from Martinus Nijhoff Publishers.]

Volume VIII, edited by Ronald Bruzina and Bruce Wilshire, is entitled Phenomenology: Dialogues and Bridges (State University of New York Press, 1982). Published in both cloth and paper, a special 10% discount will be made available to members at the Annual Conference.

Volume IX, edited by Calvin O Schrag and William L. McBride, is entitled Phenomenology in a Pluralistic Context (State University of New York Press, 1983). This volume should be ready at the time of the meetings and also at a 10% discount to SPEP members.

The current Co-Directors will be editors of the two subsequent volumes covering selected essays from the 1980-83 annual meetings. Papers selected will be grouped around the topics "Hermeneutics and Deconstruction" and "Description." Papers presented at this year's conference in St. Louis (or at the Northwestern meetings in 1981 and the Penn State meetings in 1982) should be sent in duplicate as soon as possible to either Professor Hugh J. Silverman or Professor Don Ihde at the SPEP Executive Office. In order to have Vol. X ready for the 1984 conference, the final manuscript must be completed very soon.

Any paper presented at a SPEP meeting should be submitted for first option publication in Selected Studies. Many who presented papers in 1981 or 1982 have already sent in their papers. Final decisions concerning acceptance should be available very soon after the 1983 meetings. Only a small proportion of papers actually presented can be accepted for publication. Typically, commentaries and current book discussions will not be included.

Announcements

Minutes of the 1982 SPEP Business Meeting:

The Twenty-first Annual Meeting of the Society for Phenomenology and Existential Philosophy was held at Pennsylvania State University in University Park, Pennsylvania on October 28-30, 1982. At the business meeting, which was held on Thursday evening, Professor Joseph J. Kockelmans (Penn State University) was elected to a three year term on the SPEP Executive Committee replacing Professor David Carr (University of Ottawa) whose term was completed. [Continuing members are Harold Alderman (Sonoma State University) with two years remaining, and Bernard Dauenhauer (University of Georgia) with one year remaining. Don Ihde and Hugh J. Silverman are in their third year as Executive Co-Directors of the Society.] Professor Joseph Kockelmans was thanked for his effective and efficient contribution in arranging for a smooth running conference at Penn State. The membership accepted the invitation to hold the Twenty-Second Annual Meeting of the Society in St. Louis with Professor William S. Hamrick (Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville) and Professor James Marsh (St. Louis University) as local coordinators for the conference at the Chase Park Plaza Hotel. Also the invitation by Emory University and Georgia State University to hold the 1984 meeting in Atlanta was approved by the membership. [The meeting will be held on October 18-20, 1984. These dates were selected to avoid conflict with the American Society for Aesthetics and potentially other meetings that might be held in the late Fall. Members are asked to ward off any urges or indications of other conferences that might be held that weekend. Conflicting meeting times has become a persistent problem for the Society.]

Call for SPEP Papers:

Papers, proposals for symposia, panels, and workshops, and offers to serve as commentator should be sent in duplicate to the SPEP Co-Directors at the SPEP Executive Office no later than December 1st, 1983. A preliminary program is set at the time of the SPEP Executive Committee meeting held at the end of December during the APA convention.

Hugh J. Silverman, SUNY/Stony Brook
