Train and Bus

Amtrak serves Pittsburgh's Amtrak Station, 1100 Liberty Avenue, four blocks north of the Marriott. For schedules and fares, contact Amtrak at (800) USA-RAIL or www.Amtrak.com. Greyhound provides service through Pittsburgh. Its terminal is at 909 Second Avenue, just two blocks south of the Duquesne campus. Contact www.greyhound.com for reservations.

Car From:

Pittsburgh International Airport: take the airport exit to Route 60 (South). It eventually merges into Routes 22/30 (East) and I- 279 (North). Follow it through the Fort Pitt Tunnel, over the Fort Pitt bridge to the first exit, I- 376 (East). Once on it, take the first exit for Grant Street. Stay on Grant street to the Forbes Ave intersection. Turn right, and continue until Chatham Square. Turn left on it, for two blocks, and the hotel is on your left.

I-76 Westbound: exit onto I-376 (West), take the exit for Duquesne University. This will put you on Boulevard of the Allies. Stay in the right lane, and turn right after about four blocks on Stevenson Street. After three blocks on Stevenson turn left on Fifth Avenue. After two long blocks, turn right on Washington Place (Chatham Square). After a half a block, the Marriott is on your left.

I-76 Eastbound: take the exit for Route 60 (South). Once you pass the exit for the Pittsburgh airport, follow the directions from the Airport (above).

I-79 Northbound or Southbound: take the exit onto I-279 (North). Follow that through the Fort Pitt Tunnel over the Fort Pitt bridge to the first exit after the bridge, I- 376 (East). Once on it, take the first exit for Grant Street. Stay on Grant Street to Forbes Ave. Take a right on Forbes, and continue two blocks until Chatham Square. Turn left on it, for two blocks, and the hotel will be on your left.

Childcare Service

Please contact Small World Early Learning Center. www.smallworldearlylearning.com. It is located at 960 Penn Avenue, downtown Pittsburgh, about three blocks from the Marriott. It will run from 8:30 a.m. until 5:30 p.m. on Friday and from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. The display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social and political theory. Publishers offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.

Web Site

The complete program, with updates and corrections, is available on the SPEP web site: <http://www.spep.org>.

Publication Notice

SPEP retains the right of first review for papers presented at the annual meeting. Each presenter should bring two copies of her or his paper to turn in to the registration table at the time of registration. Decisions about publication will be based on this version. If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by mid-January 2009.

Executive Committee Elections

Peg Birmingham's term of office as Executive Co-Director expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates Cynthia Willett of Emory University for a three-year term as a Executive Co-Director.

Cynthia Willett currently teaches in the areas of ethics and social and political philosophy, including feminism, critical race theory, and queer theory at Emory University. She has just published Irony in the Age of Empire: Comic Perspectives and Democracy and Freedom with Indiana University Press. Her other books include The Soul of Justice: Social Bonds and Racial Hubris (Cornell, 2001); Maternal Ethics and Other Slave Moralities (Routledge, 1995) and edited the collection Theorizing Multiculturalism (Blackwell, 1998). She is one of the co-editors for the e-journal Symposia on Race and Gender. She served as member-at-large of the SPEP Executive Committee from 2003-2006

Robert Gooding-Williams' term of office as Member-At-Large expires this year. The Executive Committee nominates both Andrew Cutrofello of Loyola University Chicago and Wayne J. Froman of George Mason University for a three-year term as a Member-At-Large.

Andrew Cutrofello is Professor of Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago. He is the author of Continental Philosophy: A Contemporary Introduction (Routledge, 2005), Imagining Otherwise: Metapsychology and the Analytic A Posteriori (Northwestern, 1997), The Owl at Dawn: A Sequel to Hegel's Phenomenology of Spirit (SUNY, 1995), and Discipline and Critique: Kant, Poststructuralism, and the Problem of Resistance (SUNY, 1994). Since 1997 he has been graduate program director at Loyola. He served on the SPEP Advisory Book Selection Committee for the 2006 and 2007 meetings.

Wayne J. Froman is Professor of Philosophy at George Mason University, where he served as department chair for ten years (1989-1999). He is the author of Merleau-Ponty: Language and the Act of Speech (Bucknell, 1982) as well as an extensive number of articles on Heidegger, Levinas, Gadamer and Ricoeur. He has co-edited several volumes including Thresholds of Western Culture (Continuum, 2002) and Merleau-Ponty and the Possibilities of Philosophy: Transforming the Tradition (forthcoming). During 1995-1996, he held a Senior Fulbright Research Professorship at the Hegel-Archiv, Ruhr Universität Bochum.

Annual SPEP Lecture and Reception at the Eastern APA Meeting

The eighth annual SPEP lecture at the Eastern Division APA meeting will be delivered this year by Cynthia Willett, Emory University: "The Ethics of the Dog-Man: Coetzee and Kristeva." There will be a response by Eduardo Mendieta, Stony Brook University, and the session will be moderated by Robert Gooding-Williams, University of Chicago. The Eastern APA meeting will be held December 27-30, 2008 in Philadelphia at the Marriott Hotel. Immediately following the lecture, SPEP will host a reception for all members and friends of continental philosophy. The location of the lecture and reception will be announced on the SPEP web site later this summer and also at the Pittsburgh meeting.

Call for Papers

The forty-eighth annual meeting will be hosted by George Mason University at the Marriott Keybridge Hotel in Arlington, Virginia, October 28-30, 2009. Papers and panels from diverse philosophical perspectives in all areas of Continental Philosophy are welcome. All submissions must be submitted electronically. SPEP is pleased to offer two prizes for superlative submissions: the best submission by a junior scholar and the best submission by a graduate student. To be eligible for the SPEP Junior Scholar Award you must have earned a Ph.D. in the last five years (no earlier than 2004). All currently enrolled graduate students are eligible for the SPEP Graduate Student Scholar Award. Each prize is $500.00 plus a hotel and travel allowance. Instructions for submitting papers and proposals will be sent to members of SPEP in the fall and will also be available on the SPEP web page at <http://www.spep.org>. The submission deadline will be Monday, February 2, 2009.

Notes of Appreciation

On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee would like to express its thanks to Jim Swindal, Lori Crosby, Susan Wadsworth Booth, Matt Valentine, and the Philosophy and the Communication and Rhetorical Studies departments of Duquesne University, to the McNulty College of Liberal Arts office of the Dean at Duquesne University for its generous financial support, and to numerous student volunteers from Duquesne, Franciscan, and St. Vincent Universities and Allegheny College.

Heidegger's Jewish Followers

Essays on Hannah Arendt, Leo Strauss,
Hans Jonas, and Emmanuel Levinas

Edited by Samuel Fleischacker

Focusing on four students—Arendt, Strauss, Jonas, and Levinas—these essays by a wide range of scholars weave together philosophical analysis, religious tradition, and historical background, and offer many possibilities for further exploration, demonstrating that there can be no simple solution to the question of Heidegger's influence on his Jewish students.

Levinas Studies: An Annual Review, Volume 3

Edited by Jeffrey Bloechl

This volume features an interview with Levinas previously published only in Dutch. In the accompanying essays, some contributors probe Levinas's thought as it develops a theory of ethical politics capable of attending to themes of community, statehood, peace, and violence, while others examine the relation of that theory to the work of contemporary political philosophers including Antonio Negri, Charles Taylor, and Simone Weil.

Ethics at a Standstill

History and Subjectivity in Levinas and the Frankfurt School

Asher Horowitz

Horowitz explores the philosophies of Levinas and the critical theorists of the Frankfurt School including Adorno, Horkheimer, Marcuse, and Benjamin, demonstrating the ways in which their works diverge from and complement each other.

SERIES IN CONTINENTAL THOUGHT
FROM OHIO UNIVERSITY PRESS

Rational Animals

The Teleological Roots of Intentionality

MARK OKRENT

"What identifies 'Continental philosophy' at its best nowadays is not textual references or argumentative style, but substantive thematic continuities and argumentative engagement. In these terms, Rational Animals is at the forefront of contemporary Continental philosophy, and indeed, will be the most important book published in this area in some time."—Joseph Rouse, Wesleyan University

248 pages, cloth $49.95, paper $24.95

Topologies of the Flesh

A Multidimensional Exploration of the Lifeworld

STEVEN M. ROSEN

"Topologies of the Flesh is a remarkable book, and not least from the fact that its passion could be sustained so steadily to the very end. . . . This is a challenging book that makes strong demands on the reader to an exciting degree."—Arnold Berleant

360 pages, illus., cloth $59.95, sale $42

Merleau-Ponty and Derrida

Intertwining Embodiment and Alterity

JACK REYNOLDS

"It is remarkable that the relation between Merleau-Ponty and Derrida, two of the seminal thinkers of the twentieth century, has received so little attention. Jack Reynolds's book makes a significant contribution toward filling this gap."—Steven Crowell, author of Husserl, Heidegger, and the Space of Meaning

208 pages, cloth $49.95, sale $35

The Romance of Individualism in Emerson and Nietzsche

DAVID MIKICS

"Mikics has a voice of his own, a rare accomplishment. He has written a lucid, lively, and accessible book that will appeal to a wide audience in both Continental theory and American studies."—Gerald L. Bruns

Opening of Hegel's Logic

From Being to Infinity

by Stephen Houlgate

978-1-55753-257-2: Paperback ~ 6x9 ~ 400 pgs. { $34.95 }
978-1-55753-256-5: Hardback ~ 6x9 ~ 400 pgs. { $62.95 }

Hegel is one of the most important modern philosophers, whose thought influenced the development of existentialism, Marxism, pragmatism, hermeneutics and deconstruction. The purpose of The Opening of Hegel's Science of Logic is to dispel the myths that surround the Logic and to show that Hegel's unjustly neglected text is a work of extraordinary subtlety and insight.

Edmund Husserl's Phenomenology

by Joseph J. Kockelmans

978-1-55753-050-9: Paperback ~ 6x9 ~ 384 pgs. { $21.95 }
978-1-55753-049-3: Hardback ~ 6x9 ~ 350 pgs. { $29.95 }

Joseph J. Kockelmans provides the reader with a biographical sketch and an overview of the salient features of Husserl's thought. Kockelmans focuses on Husserl's most important effort to articulate the aims of phenomenology for a more general audience. Included are Husserl's text -- in the original German and in English translation on facing pages -- a synopsis, and an extensive commentary that relates Husserl's work as a whole to the essay for the Encyclopedia.

Plato's Phaedrus

The Philosophy of Love

by Graeme Nicholson

978-1-55753-119-3: Paperback ~ 6x9 ~ 248 pgs. { $19.95 }
978-1-55753-118-6: Hardback ~ 6x9 ~ 248 pgs. { $29.95 }

The Phaedrus lies at the heart of Plato's work, and the topics it discusses are central to his thought. In its treatment of the topics of the soul, the ideas and love, it is closely tied to the other dialogues of Plato's "middle period," the Phaedo, the Symposium, and the Republic.

Reinterpreting Modern Culture

An Introduction to Friedrich Nietzsche's Philosophy

by Paul J.M. van Tongeren

978-1-55753-157-5: Paperback ~ 6x9 ~ 336 pgs. { $19.95 }
978-1-55753-156-8: Hardback ~ 6x9 ~ 336 pgs. { $29.95 }

Friedrich Nietzsche considers it his task to make a diagnosis of the culture of his age, to point to the latent or patent diseases, but also to the possibilities to overcome them. His diagnosis, prognosis, and prescriptions implied an overcoming of traditional interpretation of what is going on in the main domains of culture: knowledge, morality, religion, and art.

This book presents Nietzsche's thoughts on knowledge and reality, on morality and politics, and on religion. Preceding these main dialogues is an introduction on the art of reading Nietzsche's texts and on his art of writing.
