All sessions will be held at the Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center, located at 215 Innovation Blvd, State College, PA, 16801. A map of the center's location can be found at <https://www.google.com/maps/place/The+Penn+Stater+Hotel+and+Conference+Center/>. Other information for the Penn Stater can be found at <https://thepennstaterhotel.psu.edu/>.

Hotel Accommodations

Lodging for the conference participants has been arranged at the Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center, located at 215 Innovation Blvd, State College, PA, 16801. For reservations please call (814) 863-5000 and mention SPEP, or book online at <https://thepennstaterhotel.psu.edu/> and enter the group code SPEJ18a, for reduced group rate of $155.00USD (for up to quadruple occupancy).

SPEP has also arranged for overflow hotel accommodations at the nearby Nittany Lion Inn (<https://nittanylioninn.psu.edu/>) for the same rate of $155.00 (up to quadruple occupancy). The Nittany Lion Inn address is 400 W Park Ave, State College, PA, 16803. You can book online at <https://nittanylioninn.psu.edu/>, and enter SPEP group code of SPEJ18a, or call (814) 865-8500 and mention SPEP.

All guestrooms are subject to county and state hotel taxes and fees. Room rates at both hotels includes complimentary wireless internet in guestrooms. Hotel amenities at both hotels include a fitness center. The Penn Stater features a lap pool. Both hotels feature restaurants and bars. Hotel parking at both hotels is complimentary.

The Penn Stater is located about three miles east of the Penn State campus and the downtown State College area. The Nittany Lion Inn is located on the Penn State campus and is within walking distance to the downtown area. State College has several taxi companies, and Lyft and Uber. The State College area features several restaurants and bars.

Room reservations at the Penn Stater and the Nittany Lion Inn must be made by midnight Sunday, September 16, 2018. Rooms at the conference rate are limited and are not guaranteed. Since Penn State will be in session and hosting many events, State College hotels are likely to sell out, so it would be wise to make your reservations early.

Travel Information

Directions for all modes of transportation are also posted on the SPEP website: <http://www.spep.org>.

Air

The University Park Airport (SCE) is serviced by American Airlines, Delta Airlines, and United Airlines. There are direct flights from Philadelphia, Washington, DC, and from Chicago. The University Park Airport is located about 6 miles (approximately as 10-15 minute ride) from the Penn Stater and the Nittany Lion Inn. You may arrange for a complimentary Penn Stater shuttle to pick you up at the airport. Please telephone in advance to arrange for the shuttle (the Penn Stater, (814) 863-5000; the Nittany Lion Inn, (814) 865-8500). Taxi service from the airport to both hotels is around $16.00. Uber and Lyft will charge around $18.00.

Car

If driving from the east or west, you may reach the Penn State University area by means of either interstate 80 or interstate 76 (a toll road).

Interstate 80: If you are traveling from the east on interstate 80W, take exit 161 (Bellefonte); this exit will continue onto Interstate 99 south; continue on 99 until exit 74 (Innovation Park); turn right (east) onto the Park Ave connector; turn left onto Innovation Blvd; the Penn Stater will be straight ahead. Directions for traveling from the west on Interstate 80E are identical.

Interstate 76: If you are travelling (from the east) on Interstate 76w, take exit 247 (Harrisburg); follow the signs for 322W (it's also 22w, in the direction of Lewistown); take 322w for 79 miles; take the exit toward the Beaver Football Stadium; turn right (west) onto Park Ave; bear right and continue onto Park Avenue; turn left on Innovation Blvd; the Penn Stater (215 Innovation Blvd, State College, PA, 16801) will be straight ahead. If you are traveling from the west on interstate 76E, take exit 146 (Bedford); follow the signs for interstate 99; continue on 99 until exit 74 (Innovation Park); turn right (east) onto the Park Ave connector; turn left onto Innovation Blvd; the Penn Stater will be straight ahead.

The directions are identical for the Nittany Lion Inn (200 W. Park Ave, State College, PA, 16803), except when you reach Park Ave, turn left (east); continue on Park Ave for about 2 miles; turn left onto Fischer Rd; the Inn will be straight ahead.

From University Park Airport:

To the Penn Stater: Exit the airport and turn left on Fox Hollow Road; follow Fox Hollow Road for 4 miles to the intersection with Park Ave; turn left (east) at Park Ave; follow Park Ave for about 1 mile, bear right and continue on Park Ave; in 0.4 miles turn left onto Innovation Blvd; the Penn Stater will be straight ahead.

To the Nittany Lion Inn: Exit the airport and turn left on Fox Hollow Road; follow Fox Hollow Road for 4 miles to the intersection with Park Ave; turn right (west) onto Park Ave; continue on Park Ave for about 2 miles; turn left onto Fischer Rd; the Inn will be straight ahead.

Bus

Megabus services State College with relatively inexpensive fares: <https://us.megabus.com/>.

Childcare Services

You may find childcare or baby sitters in State College through the following agencies: <https://www.care.com/babysitters/state-college-pa>; <https://sitter.com/sitters/state-college,pennsylvania>; and <https://www.brightstarcare.com/happy-valley/home-care/child-care-services/sitters>.

Audiovisual Equipment

All audiovisual equipment arrangements for the main program have already been made. Inquiries or confirmations may be sent to Philipa Friedman (pfriedman@luc.edu). Affiliate groups are responsible for the cost of audiovisual equipment and must contact Margo Williamson (mrw10@psu.edu). Arrangements must be made by September 1, 2018.

Publisher's Book Exhibit

A publisher's book exhibit will be held in the exhibit room, the Deans Ballroom, in the Penn Stater. The exhibit will open on Thursday at 12:00 p.m. and close at 5:30 p.m.; it will run from 8:30am until 5:30 p.m. on Friday, and from 8:30 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. on Saturday. The display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social, and political theory. Publishers typically offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.

Website

The complete program is available on the SPEP website at <http://www.spep.org>.

Publication Notice

SPEP retains the right of first review for papers presented at the annual meeting. Each presenter should submit their paper via the online submission system of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy at <http://www.editorialmanager.com/jsp/> by December 1, 2018. (You will need to create an author profile and note the manuscript type as “special issue article (SPEP)”; the online system will guide you through the steps to upload your submission.) Papers submitted should be no longer than 4,500 words including notes. Papers should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style and in MS Word format (no PDFs). If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by February 2019.

Executive Committee Elections

Shannon Sullivan’s term of office as Member-at-Large expires this year. The Executive Committee has nominated Devonya Havis of Canisius College and Mariana Ortega of Pennsylvania State University for a three year term as Member-at-Large. In keeping with our new policy, voting is taking place online through the Philosophy Documentation Center. All current members of the Society should have received an email with a unique access key from the PDC. Voting ends September 15, 2018 at 11:45 p.m. EDT.

Devonya Havis is an Associate Professor of Philosophy at Canisius College in Buffalo, NY. She earned her PhD in Philosophy from Boston College and her BA in Religion from Williams College. Her scholarly engagements utilize insights from Michel Foucault as a means of exploring issues in Critical Philosophy of Race, Critical Disability Studies, and Phenomenology. Her publications include: “‘Now, How You Sound’: Considering a Different Philosophical Praxis” in Hypatia; “The Parrhesiastic Enterprise of Black Philosophy” in Black Scholar; “Managing Individuals and Populations through Psychiatric Classification,” forthcoming in the Bloomsbury Companion to the Philosophy of Psychiatry; “Blackness Beyond Witness” in Philosophy and Social Criticism; and “‘Seeing Black’ through Michel Foucault’s Eyes: ‘Stand Your Ground’ Laws as An Anchorage Point for State-Sponsored Racism,” a chapter in the anthology, Pursuing Trayvon Martin: Historical Contexts and Contemporary Manifestations of Racial Dynamics; and she is a contributor to Addressing Ableism: Philosophical Questions via Disability Studies. Havis is currently working on a book titled, Creating a Black Vernacular Philosophy. She teaches to promote social justice, an interest that is especially evident in the Immersion East Side (Buffalo, NY) Ignatian Seminar that she has co-designed and co-directed for the last six years. The immersion is designed to engage students with the unique rites, rituals, cultural practices, and perseverance of Buffalo’s East Side residents who operate in the context of numerous structural, social, and political impediments. The seminar not only explores these realities but also celebrates the historical Black capacity to “create” even in the midst of a desert. Havis serves on the Partnership for The Public Good board and is a member of the Prison Visiting Project Western New York Auxiliary. She served on the SPEP Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee from 2013 to 2015.

Mariana Ortega is Associate Professor in the Philosophy Department, and Women’s, Gender, and Sexualities Program at The Pennsylvania State University. She earned her PhD in Philosophy at the University of California, San Diego with a dissertation on Heidegger directed by Frederick A. Olafson. Her main areas of research and interest are Women of Color Feminisms, in particular Latina Feminisms, 20th Continental Philosophy, Phenomenology (Heidegger), Philosophy of Race, and Aesthetics. Her research focuses on questions of self and identity, as well as visual representations of race, gender, and sexuality. She is co-editor with Linda Martín-Alcoff of the anthology Constructing the Nation: A Race and Nationalism Reader (SUNY, 2009) and author of In-Between: Latina Feminist Phenomenology, Multiplicity, and the Self (SUNY, 2016) in which she presents a theory of multiplicitous selfhood informed by women of color theorizing, in particular Latina feminisms, and Heideggerian phenomenology. She is currently working on three projects: a monograph at the intersection of aesthetics, epistemology of ignorance, philosophy of race, and Latinidad; a co-edited anthology on Latina and Latin American feminisms; and a co-edited anthology on phenomenology and aesthetics. She is the founder and director of the Latina/x Feminisms Roundtable (formerly the Roundtable on Latina feminism), a forum dedicated to discussions of Latina, Latinx, and Latin American feminisms. She has previously served on the SPEP Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee and the Committee on the Status of Women.

Annual SPEP Lecture at the APA Eastern Division Meeting

The seventeenth annual SPEP lecture at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting will be delivered this year by Amy Allen of Pennsylvania State University. The title of her lecture will be “Psychoanalysis and the Critique of Progress.” There will be a response by Noëlle McAfee of Emory University. The date and time of the session will be announced on the SPEP website. All SPEP members and friends of continental philosophy are invited to attend. The APA Eastern Division meeting will be held January 7-10, 2019 at the Sheraton New York Times Square Hotel in New York City, NY.

Call for Papers

The fifty-eighth annual SPEP meeting will be hosted by Duquesne University, October 31-November 2, 2019, in Pittsburgh, PA. Papers and panels from diverse philosophical perspectives in all areas of continental philosophy are welcome. All submissions must be submitted electronically. Instructions for submitting papers and proposals will be available on the SPEP website at www.spep.org.

The submission deadline is January 20, 2019. All submissions must be sent as electronic attachments in MS Word or PDF file format to Peter Gratton at: grattonspep@gmail.com.

Please note that the deadline for receipt of book submissions has been moved up to December 10, 2018. Further information is available on the SPEP website.

Prizes

SPEP is pleased to offer three prizes for exemplary submissions: the best submission by a junior scholar, the best submission by a graduate student, and the best paper in feminist philosophy.

The Junior Scholar Award and the Graduate Student Award are monetary prizes. To be eligible for the SPEP Junior Scholar Award you must have earned a PhD in the last five years (no earlier than 2013). All currently enrolled graduate students are eligible for the SPEP Graduate Student Award. Each prize is $500.00 plus a hotel and travel allowance. The runner-up for each of these two prizes will be featured in the program as SPEP Junior Scholar Award Honorable Mention and SPEP Graduate Student Award Honorable Mention.

The Iris Marion Young Prize for the best submission in feminist philosophy is awarded by the SPEP Committee on the Status of Women. Authors who wish to be considered for this prize should self-designate their papers for consideration when submitting them to SPEP. Papers submitted for the Iris Marion Young Prize are also eligible to receive other SPEP prizes.

Notes of Appreciation

On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee extends its gratitude to the faculty, staff, and students from the Department of Philosophy at the Pennsylvania State University. We would especially like to thank Leonard Lawlor and Amy Allen, local contacts and co-organizers; Leonard Lawlor and Theodore Bergsma, for organizing the book exhibit; and all of the graduate student volunteers.

The Executive Committee would like to thank the following for their generous financial support of the conference: the office of Dean Susan Welch of the Pennsylvania State College of the Liberal Arts; Dr. Robert Capretto; the Rock Ethics Institute; and the Pennsylvania State University Departments of Comparative Literature, English, French and Francophone Studies, Germanic and Slavic Languages and Literatures, and Philosophy.

We thank Christopher P. Long for his years of service as webmaster for SPEP; he has decided to step down this year and will be replaced by John Protevi. The Executive Committee would further like to thank the Graduate School and Department of Philosophy at Loyola University Chicago for providing the funding for our graduate student assistant.

Minutes of the 2017 SPEP Business Meeting

Executive Co-Director Alia Al-Saji called the meeting to order at 5:50 p.m. on Friday, October 20, 2017.

1. John Drummond was appointed parliamentarian. Kathryn Gines was appointed time-keeper.
2. The minutes from the 2016 meeting in Memphis, TN, were submitted and accepted without correction.
3. On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee (EC) expressed its gratitude for the organizational support of the faculty, staff, and students from the Department of Philosophy at the University of Memphis, including Connie Diffree and Cathy Wilhelm. Special thanks were given to the local hosts and co-organizers, Mary Beth Mader and Thomas Nenon, and to the book exhibit coordinator, Michael Ardoline. The EC also thanked those who generously contributed financial support for the conference: the Department of Philosophy at the University of Memphis, the Department of Philosophy and Dean of Academic Affairs at Rhodes College, Kelly Oliver of Vanderbilt University, and Ellen T. Armour and the Carpenter Program in Religion, Gender, and Sexuality at Vanderbilt University. The EC also thanked Christopher Long for his work as webmaster.
4. Emily Zakin, the SPEP Secretary-Treasurer, presented the following statistics. The Executive Committee reviewed 311 papers. Of the 311 papers submitted, 119 were accepted, resulting in an overall acceptance rate of 38%. Of the 311 papers submitted, 186 were authored by men and 70 were accepted, resulting in an acceptance rate of 37% for men. Of the 311 papers submitted, 125 were authored by women and 49 were accepted, resulting in an acceptance rate of 39% for women.
5. Emily Zakin noted that the Society currently had approximately 580 active members. The number needed to reach a quorum at the business meeting was therefore around 58, or 10% of all members. A sufficient number of members were present at the meeting.
6. Emily Zakin noted that for the 2016-17 Fiscal Year, SPEP's total income was $97,131.00, and its total expense was $96,241.08, for a net income of $889.92. Zakin compared this with the 2015-16 fiscal year, when SPEP's income was $112,133.01 and its total expense was $109,497.56, for a net income of $2636.45. The difference between these years is largely attributable to the vagaries of the fiscal year and to the manner in which local hosts make their contribution. As of the current meeting, SPEP had approximately $40,000 in reserve. Zakin noted that SPEP's bank account typically fluctuates between $20,000 and $70,000, depending on the time of year.
7. Richard Kearney spoke in memory of William Richardson.
8. William McKenna spoke in memory of Lester Embree.
9. Margaret McLaren spoke in memory of Sandra Bartky.
10. Shaun Gallagher spoke in memory of Hubert Dreyfus.
11. Robert Scharff spoke in memory of Eugene Gendlin.
12. Alan Schrift's term as a Member-at-Large on the Executive Committee expired with this meeting. Andrew Cutrofello expressed the EC's gratitude to him for his many contributions to SPEP.
13. Alia Al-Saji's term as Executive Co-Director expired with this meeting. Andrew Cutrofello expressed the EC's gratitude to her for her many contributions to SPEP.
14. Emily Zakin's term as Secretary-Treasurer expired with this meeting. Alia Al-Saji expressed the EC's gratitude to her for her many contributions to SPEP.

15. Alia Al-Saji expressed gratitude to the outgoing Graduate Assistant Eric Murphy for his many contributions to SPEP.
16. Ann Murphy conducted the election for the open replacement position of Member-at-Large on the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee nominated John Protevi and Brent Adkins. There were no nominations from the floor. John Protevi was elected by ballot. Gratitude was expressed to Brent Atkins for his willingness to stand for election.
17. Ann Murphy conducted the election for the Executive Co-Director. The Executive Committee nominated Gail Weiss. There were no nominations from the floor. Gail Weiss was elected by acclamation.
18. Alia Al-Saji recognized Leonard Lawlor, who gave a report on behalf of Pennsylvania State University about the arrangements for the next SPEP meeting, October 18-20, 2018. Lawlor announced that all events would be held at the Penn Stater Conference Center Hotel. The negotiated room rate would be $155.00 per night. The local organizers would be Leonard Lawlor and Amy Allen.
19. Alia Al-Saji recognized Fred Evans and Jeff McCurry of Duquesne University to give a brief report about the arrangements for the following meeting, to be held October 31 to November 2, 2019 in Pittsburgh.
20. Alia Al-Saji recognized David Ciavatta of Ryerson University to give a brief report about the arrangements for the 2020 meeting in Toronto.
21. Alia Al-Saji encouraged members to contact the EC if they were interested in hosting or co-hosting a future SPEP meeting.
22. Alan Schrift put forward an EC proposal to permit online voting for Member-at-Large positions. This proposal had been distributed via e-mail in September and posted on the website. Hard copies were handed out at the door of the business meeting. It was noted that an amendment to the SPEP Bylaws required a two-thirds "Yes" vote to pass. SPEP members Adriel Trott and Yannik Thiem introduced two amendments to the proposal. The SPEP EC accepted these as friendly amendments. After a brief discussion the amended proposal passed with 100 in favor and 15 against. Four members abstained.
23. Shannon Sullivan recognized Mariana Ortega, who gave a report on the Committee on the Status of Women. The winner of this year's Iris Marion Young Prize was Susan Nordstrom. The term of Mariana Ortega expired. The Committee on the Status of Women nominated Talia Bettcher for the vacant position. Talia Bettcher was elected by acclamation.
24. Shannon Sullivan recognized Das Janssen, who gave a report on the LGBTQ Advocacy Committee. The term of Jami Weinstein expired. The LGBTQ Advocacy Committee nominated Leigh Johnson for the vacant position. Leigh Johnson was elected by acclamation.
25. Shannon Sullivan recognized Camisha Russell, who gave a report on the Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee. The term of Camisha Russell expired. The Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee nominated Sandra Harvey for the vacant position. Sandra Harvey was elected by acclamation.
26. Shannon Sullivan recognized Kathryn Gines, who gave a report on the Advocacy Committee. The term of Kathryn Gines expired. The Advocacy Committee nominated Cynthia Paccacerqua for the vacant position. Cynthia Paccacerqua was elected by acclamation.
27. Christian Lotz announced the two prize recipients for 2017. The Junior Scholar Prize Recipient was Ashley J. Bohrer of Hamilton College for her paper, "Colorblind Racism in Early Modernity: Race, Colonization and Capitalism in the Work of Francisco de Vitoria.” The Graduate Student Prize Recipient was Güçsal Pusar from DePaul University for his paper, “Heidegger on Kant, Finitude, and the Correlativity of Thinking and Being.” The Executive Committee also recognized the members who received the Honorable Mentions for their papers. Matthew Coate from Kent State University was the recipient of the Junior Scholar Prize Honorable Mention for his paper, “Yes, the Whole Approach is Questionable, Yes, False’: Phenomenology and the New Realism.” Emma D. Velez from Pennsylvania State University was the recipient of the Graduate Student Honorable Mention for her paper: “Forked Tongues: A Decolonial Approach to Rethinking the Native Informant.”

28. Shannon Sullivan announced that the seventeenth annual SPEP lecture at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting will be delivered by Amy Allen of Pennsylvania State University. The title of her lecture will be “Foucault and the Problem of Psychoanalysis.” There will be a response by Noëlle McAfee of Emory University. The session is scheduled for Thursday, January 4, 2018 from 5:15 pm to 7:15 pm. A reception for all SPEP members and friends of the Society will immediately follow the lecture.

29. Shannon Sullivan announced that the EC would consult with the Advocacy Committee and consider discontinuing the annual Eastern APA reception because of rising costs. The cost of the previous year’s reception was approximately $2600. Members were invited to share their input on this proposal.

30. Shannon Sullivan reminded members that SPEP retains the right of first refusal for papers presented at the annual meeting. To be considered for publication in the SPEP Supplement of The Journal of Speculative Philosophy, presenters should submit their paper via the online submission system of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy, which is listed in the SPEP program, by December 1, 2017. Papers submitted should be no longer than 4500 words inclusive of notes. Papers should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style and in MS Word format (no PDFs). Only individual papers are considered, not full panels or book sessions. Final decisions regarding the papers to be included in the volume will be made by mid-February, 2018. The papers of members who have not paid their annual membership dues by the close of the registration desk on Saturday at noon will not be considered for publication.

31. Andrew Cutrofello asked if there was any new business or announcements from the membership. There were several announcements from the floor.

32. Alia Al-Saji adjourned the meeting at 7:40.

Cultivating Underrepresented Students in Philosophy

Thanks to the generous support of the Andrew W.
Mellon Foundation, Penn State's Philosophy
Department is now offering...

SUMMER CUSP

This workshop is held in the summer for undergraduates who are normally in their second or third year of study and are considering pursuing a career in Philosophy. Students will be brought to Penn State for a week to attend seminars designed to develop and strengthen the skill sets necessary to excel in the field of Philosophy.

FALL CUSP

This workshop is held in the Fall to advise advanced students who are working on applications to Philosophy Ph.D. programs for the upcoming Fall Semester. Selected students will be brought to Penn State to attend seminars regarding the graduate application process (writing sample revisions, statement of purpose preparation, program selection, etc.).

The Sentient Archive: Bodies, Performance, and Memory

Top artists and scholars theorize
the body as a crucible of knowledge

"The book works like a landscape where [diverse] voices and their shimmering echoes intersect, inviting us in to join the unfinished, disappearing dance of movement and memory, of the sentient body and its archival impulse, its fragile yet insistent resistance to the slippage of time."

—Elizabeth A. Behnke

Study Project in Phenomenology of the Body

The new publication from The Pew Center for Arts & Heritage gathers essays in the fields of dance, architecture, science, and the visual arts that consider the nature of physicality, history, memory, and agency, drawing connections between body and archive.
