Restaurants and bars in College Station and nearby Bryan, TX can be accessed via taxi and Uber/Lyft.

Note: Room reservations at the Texas A&M Hotel and Conference Center must be made by September 12, 2022. Rooms at the conference rate are limited and are not guaranteed.

Travel Information
Air transportation to Bryan/College Station is available through Easterwood Airport (CLL). Service is currently available to and from Dallas. Participants may also fly into Houston (IAH) and take the very reliable and comfortable Ground Shuttle: https://groundshuttle.com/. It is highly recommended that you coordinate your flight with shuttle availability. SPEP will be working with the Ground Shuttle to coordinate waitlists and further shuttles should these fill up, but participants are strongly advised to secure travel arrangements as soon as possible.

Childcare Services
Childcare with providers who have undergone background checks is available through www.care.com. You can also contact the hotel to inquire whether other options are available.

Audiovisual Equipment
All audiovisual equipment arrangements have already been made. Inquiries or confirmations may be sent to Jack Marchesi at jmarche7@depaul.edu.

Accessibility Information
If a registered conference attendee needs a personal assistant in order to attend the conference, the conference registration and annual membership dues will be waived for the assistant. Please contact Laura McMahon, Secretary-Treasurer (mcmahonspep@gmail.com), to process the waivers. To reasonably accommodate attendees with allergies or other chemical intolerances, SPEP requests that all conference attendees minimize the use of strong scents. Additional information to enhance accessibility to SPEP program sessions will be provided to moderators of all sessions. Information about accessibility at the conference center and in hotel rooms can be found here: https://www.texasamhotelcc.com/ada/

Publisher’s Book Exhibit
A publishers' book exhibit will be held in the CENTURY BALLROOM I & II, on the lobby level of the Texas A&M Hotel and Conference Center. The exhibit hours are Thursday 12:00-5:30 pm, Friday 8:30am-5:30 pm; and Saturday 8:30am-1:00 pm. The display is organized in cooperation with publishers specializing in scholarship influenced by continental philosophy and literary, social, and political theory. Publishers offer discounts on books ordered at the exhibit.
Website
The complete program is available on the SPEP website at http://www.ssep.org.

Publication Notice
The SPEP Executive Committee strongly encourages authors to submit papers presented at the annual meeting for consideration for the Journal of Speculative Philosophy SPEP Special Issue edited each year by the two SPEP Executive Co-Directors. To be considered, papers must be uploaded by January 2, 2023 through the JSP online submission system at http://www.editorialmanager.com/jsp/. You will need to create an author profile and note the manuscript type as “Special Issue article (SPEP)”; the online system will then guide you through the steps to upload your submission. Submitted papers should be no longer than 4,000 words including notes. Papers should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style and in MS Word format (no PDFs). If the paper is selected for publication, there will be an opportunity for minor revisions. Decisions regarding publication will be communicated by February 1, 2023.

Executive Committee Elections
Member-at-Large Antonio Calcagno will end his term on the Executive Committee this year. An online election will be run through the Philosophy Documentation Center (PDC) for his Member-at-Large position. The bios for the two candidates appear below. All current members of the Society are eligible to vote and will receive an email with a unique access key from the PDC. Voting ends September 15, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. US Eastern Daylight Time. The results of the election will be announced on the SPEP website as well as at the fall Business Meeting.

The Executive Committee nominates Andrew J. Mitchell of Emory University and David Morris of Concordia University for a three-year term as Member-at-Large to replace Antonio Calcagno.

Andrew J. Mitchell is Professor of Philosophy at Emory University. His emphasis is in post-Kantian German philosophy with a focus on aesthetics and metaphysics (Romanticism, Nietzsche/Wagner, phenomenology/Heidegger). He is the author of Heidegger Among the Sculptors (Stanford, 2010) and The Fourfold: Reading the Late Heidegger (Northwestern, 2015). He has translated four books and edited four others. He is currently finishing a manuscript, tentatively entitled Drinking with Heidegger; or Basic Questions of Oenology, and a co-authored book, Wagner and the Subject of Redemption: Politics, Erotics, and Religion in the Music Drama. He is also co-translating two volumes of the early Nietzsche (The Birth of Tragedy with surrounding essays and notebooks) for the Stanford series The Complete Works of Friedrich Nietzsche. His work has received support from the NEH and ACLS.

David Morris is Professor of Philosophy at Concordia University, Montreal, Canada. He specializes in phenomenology, especially Merleau-Ponty, with research that focuses on body, mind and nature in relation to current biology and other sciences. His other interests include Hegel, Bergson and Aristotle. He is currently working to complete a book on Time, Meaning, Nature, as a sequel to Merleau-Ponty’s Developmental Ontology (Northwestern University Press, 2018), which won the 2020 Edward Goodwin Ballard Prize for best book in phenomenology. He is also author of The Sense of Space (SUNY, 2004) and is co-editor, with Kym Maclaren, of Time, Memory, Institution: Merleau-Ponty’s New Ontology of Self (Ohio UP, 2015). He is currently Associate General Secretary of the International Merleau-Ponty Circle, where he initiated an online film series, Phenomenology of Perception Around the World, during the Covid crisis; he is a Member at Large of the Canadian Society for Continental Philosophy, on the editorial board of Concordia University Press, is Graduate Program Director of the interdisciplinary Humanities PhD program at Concordia, and was department Chair at Concordia for 6 years, for which he earned a Concordia Emerging Academic Leadership Award.

All conference participants must register for the 2022 conference and be members in good standing for the program year. Participants who neglect to register and pay annual dues for the program year will not be considered for future programs until they have paid their outstanding balance.

Annual SPEP Panel at the APA Eastern Division Meeting
The twentieth annual SPEP panel at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting will take place at the 2023 Eastern Division meeting in Montréal. The panel is entitled: “Carceral Logics.” The 2023 SPEP panel will include talks by Lisa Guenther (Queens University) on “Carceral Logics of Colonialism” and Jasmine Wallace (Georgia Southern University) on “The Convergence of Medical Diagnoses and Carceral Systems in Cases of ‘excited delirium’: Foucault, Merleau-Ponty, and Undisciplined Body Schemas.” Dalitso Ruwe (Queens University) will moderate the session. The 2023 Eastern APA meeting will take place in Montréal at Le Centre Sheraton, January 4-7, 2023. All SPEP members and friends of continental philosophy are invited to attend.

Call for Papers
The sixty-first annual SPEP meeting will be hosted by Toronto Metropolitan University (formerly Ryerson University), October 12-14, 2023 in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. Papers and panels from diverse philosophical perspectives in all areas of continental philosophy are welcome. All paper and panel submissions must be submitted electronically following the instructions that appear below.

The paper submission deadline for SPEP 2023 is January 20, 2023. A Call for Papers will be circulated by November 1, 2022 with detailed submission instructions, and will also be posted on the website: www.spep.org.

The book submission deadline for SPEP 2023 is December 10, 2022. Instructions for authors who have published a monograph within the last three years can be found on the SPEP website and in the 2023 Call for Papers.
Prizes
SPEP is pleased to offer six prizes for exemplary submissions. Each prize-winner will be awarded $500, and will be recognized on the SPEP program and at the SPEP Business Meeting. Winners of the Junior Scholar and Graduate Awards are eligible for the other prizes, but no individual can win more than one of the Young, Wynter, Toombs, and Lee prizes. All prize winners, including those receiving Honorable Mention, are strongly encouraged to submit their papers to the SPEP special issue of the JSP.

- Best Submission by a Junior Scholar. To be eligible for the SPEP Junior Scholar Award you must have earned a PhD in the last five years (no earlier than 2017). You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. In addition to the $500 prize, the winner will be granted a travel and hotel allowance. The runner-up for the award will be featured on the program as the SPEP Junior Scholar Award Honorable Mention.

- Best Submission by a Graduate Student. All currently enrolled graduate students are eligible for the SPEP Graduate Student Award. You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. In addition to the $500 prize, the winner will be granted a travel and hotel allowance. The runner-up for the award will be featured on the program as the SPEP Graduate Student Award Honorable Mention.

- The Iris Marion Young Prize for the Best Paper in Feminist Philosophy, awarded by the Committee on the Status of Women. You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. The winner will be chosen by the CSW through anonymous review and will be notified by June 15, 2023.

- The Sylvia Wynter Prize for the Best Paper considering anti-blackness, Africana and Indigenous diasporas, colonialism, post-colonialism, settler-colonialism by a Black, Indigenous, and/or person of color junior scholar (that is, a pre-tenure scholar or graduate student) awarded by the Committee on Racial and Ethnic Diversity. You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. The winner will be chosen by the REDC through anonymous review and will be notified by June 15, 2023.

- The S. Kay Toombs Prize for the Best Paper addressing disability, ableism, research in philosophy of disability, and/or research in critical disability studies by a junior scholar (that is, a scholar who has earned a PhD in the five years prior to the submission date) or graduate student awarded by the Committee on Accessibility, Disability, and Inclusion. You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. The winner will be chosen by the CADI through anonymous review and will be notified by June 15, 2023. The author of the prize-winning paper will also be invited to submit their paper to the Journal of Philosophy of Disability.

- The Kyoo “Q” Lee Prize for Best Paper on LGBTQ Issues in Philosophy by a junior scholar, graduate student, or independent scholar/researcher that 1) engages LGBTQ philosophy, addressing issues of gender, sexuality, queer theory, and/or trans philosophy (especially papers engaging LGBTQ issues in conversation with questions of race, ethnicity, indigeneity, disability, culture, class, migration, religion, and/or age) and/or 2) is submitted by a self-identified LGBTQ author. Priority will be given to scholars who work across genres (broadly construed) in innovative ways. You must declare your desire to be considered for this prize on the cover sheet that accompanies your submission. The winner will be chosen by the LGBTQ Advocacy Committee through anonymous review and will be notified by June 15, 2023. Awardees will be invited to be formally recognized at the annual LGBTQ Advocacy Committee Session on the main SPEP program.
Notes of Appreciation
On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee extends its gratitude to the faculty, staff, and students from the Department of Philosophy at Texas A&M University. We would especially like to thank Kristi Sweet, local contact and organizer; Brandon Wadlington, book exhibit and volunteer student coordinator; Kendra P. Clough, Director of Conference Services & Catering, and Mallory Phipps, Sales Manager, at the Texas A&M Hotel and Conference center; and the philosophy and other graduate students who volunteered to help.

The Executive Committee would also like to thank the following Texas A&M University institutions and individuals for their generous financial and other forms of support for the conference: Dr. Martin Peterson, Professor of Philosophy & Sue G. And Harry E. Bovay Professor of the History and Ethics of Professional Engineering, the Melbern G. Glasscock Center for Humanities Research, and the Department of Philosophy and Humanities. In addition, we would like to acknowledge the generous financial support from the City of College Station (https://visit.cstx.gov), as well as from Epoché: A Journal for the History of Philosophy.

The Executive Committee would also like to thank Matthew Fee, graduate student at the University of Memphis, for serving as SPEP Web Administrator and Social Media Coordinator, and to thank Jill Davis Schrift for providing the cover image and Molly Kelly for designing the cover. We would further like to thank the Laney Graduate School at Emory University for providing the funding for Co-Director Shannon Sullivan’s graduate student assistant Molly Kelly. We would also like to express our gratitude to the College of Liberal Arts and Social Sciences and the Department of Philosophy at DePaul University for providing the funding for Co-Director Alan Schrift’s graduate student assistant, Jack Marchesi. And we would like to thank Grinnell College for providing financial support to fund the work of both of the graduate student assistants.

This program made possible in part through Hotel Occupancy Tax Revenue funded through the City of College Station.

Minutes of the 2021 SPEP Business Meeting

Gail Weiss called the meeting to order at 4:37 p.m. on Thursday, September 23rd.

1. Ammon Allred was appointed parliamentarian and time-keeper.

2. The minutes from the 2020 virtual business meeting were submitted and accepted without correction.

3. On behalf of the Society, the Executive Committee extends its gratitude to everyone who helped put this virtual conference together, especially those individuals who volunteered as tech support. The Executive Committee would further like to thank Emory University and Grinnell College for providing the funding for our graduate student assistant, Molly Kelly. We also would like to thank DePaul University and Grinnell College for providing the funding for our outgoing graduate assistant, Eric Aldieri, and our incoming graduate assistant, Jack Marchesi.

4. Kaitlyn Creasy, SPEP Secretary-Treasurer, presented the following statistical information for the 2021 meeting. The Executive Committee considered 320 papers. Of the 320 papers submitted, 129 were accepted, resulting in an overall acceptance rate of 40%. There were approximately 372 active members at the time we sent out the business meeting agenda. Thus, the number needed to reach a quorum at the business meeting was 37. Quorum was met for the meeting.

5. Kaitlyn Creasy presented the Budget and Treasury Report. For the 2020-2021 Fiscal Year up to the date of the 2021 Business Meeting, SPEP’s total income was $38,945 and our total expense was $28,036, for a net income of $10,909. To put this in comparison with the 2019-2020 Fiscal Year, SPEP’s total income was $99,766 and our total expense was $63,658, for a net income of $36,108. The difference between years is largely attributable to the vagaries of the fiscal year and to the manner in which local hosts make their contribution, though the 2019-2020 surplus is largely explained by conference income from the 2019 conference deposited after October 1, 2019, as well as the lack of typical conference expenses due to the canceled 2020 conference. As of this meeting, SPEP has approximately $70,000 in reserve. Our bank account fluctuates between $25,000 and $80,000 depending on the time of year.

6. Kaitlyn Creasy offered a report on dues and fees restructuring. In the face of our overall budget situation, we decided to restructure our dues in 2019 in a more equitable manner that we hoped would also help us add to our bank balance for future contingencies. The new structure is income-based rather than rank-based. As of this meeting, it is clear that the new dues structure benefits SPEP. To provide some context and an example, Creasy compared the dues received in the 2nd quarter of 2019 with those received in the 2nd quarter of 2021. In the 2nd quarter of 2019, we received $10,640 in dues from 139 members, with the result that we brought in roughly $76 per member. In the 2nd quarter of 2021, we received $25,650 in dues from 224 members, with the result that we brought in roughly $114 per member. So, the new dues structure is helping us bring in more per member, which will better SPEP’s financial situation in the long run as long as membership numbers remain steady.

7. Gail Weiss held a moment of silence for Charles Mills, who passed away shortly before the beginning of the SPEP 2021 conference. She then invited members to visit the In Memoriam tribute page on the conference website to read tributes to Charles Guignon, Agnes Heller, Nancy Holland, John Llewelyn, María Lugones, Jean-Luc Nancy, Michel Serres, and Bernard Stiegler. The In Memoriam website was offered as part of the virtual conference in lieu of spoken tributes at this Business Meeting.

8. The term of Rawb Leon-Carlyle expired in October 2020. Gail Weiss expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to Rawb for his many contributions to SPEP as graduate assistant.

9. The term of Eric Aldieri expired with this meeting. Alan Schrift expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to Eric for his many contributions to SPEP as graduate assistant.
10. The term of John Protevi expired in October 2020. Gail Weiss expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to John for his many contributions to SPEP as Member-at-Large.

11. The term of Mariana Ortega expired with this meeting. Gail Weiss expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to Mariana for her many contributions to SPEP as Member-at-Large.

12. The term of Kaitlyn Creasy expired with this meeting. Alan Schrift expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to Kaitlyn for her many contributions to SPEP as Secretary-Treasurer.

13. The term of Gail Weiss expired with this meeting. Alan Schrift expressed the Executive Committee’s gratitude to Gail for her many contributions to SPEP as Executive Co-Director.

14. The SPEP Executive Committee is pleased to announce the results of this year’s online elections, which have already been posted on the SPEP website. Shannon Sullivan has been elected to a three-year term as Executive Co-Director. Shannon will replace Gail Weiss as Executive Co-Director immediately after the Business Meeting. In addition, María del Rosario Acosta López and Adriel Trott have been elected to three-year positions as Members-at-Large on the Executive Committee. María will replace outgoing Member-at-Large Mariana Ortega after the Business Meeting, and Adriel replaces former Member-at-Large John Protevi. The Executive Committee thanks Alfred Frankowski and Dilek Huseyinzadegan for their willingness to stand for election.

15. Alan Schrift recognized Kristi Sweet, who gave a report on behalf of Texas A&M University about the arrangements for SPEP 2022 (October 13-15). A block of rooms will be reserved at the Texas A&M Hotel and Conference Center in College Station, TX. The room rate will be $143 USD. The local organizers are Kristi Sweet and Ted George.

16. Alan Schrift recognized Kaitlyn Creasy, who gave a report on behalf of David Ciavatta and Paula Schwebel of Ryerson University (subsequently renamed Toronto Metropolitan University) about the arrangements for SPEP 2023 (September 23-25). A block of rooms will be reserved at the Toronto Hilton in Toronto, Ontario, Canada. The room rate will be $233 CAD. The local organizers are David Ciavatta and Paula Schwebel.

17. Alan Schrift recognized Kaitlyn Creasy, who gave a report on behalf of Brian Schroeder of the Rochester Institute of Technology about the arrangements for SPEP 2024 (September 26-28). A block of rooms will be reserved at the Hyatt in Rochester, NY. The room rate will be $157 USD. The local organizer is Brian Schroeder.

18. Alan Schrift invited members to serve as local hosts or co-hosts of an annual SPEP meeting. Those interested in hosting a meeting may contact any member of the Executive Committee.

19. Mariana Ortega recognized Kim Q. Hall, who gave a report on the Committee on Accessibility, Disability, and Inclusion. The term of Stephanie Jenkins expired. The Committee on Accessibility, Disability, and Inclusion nominated Christine Wieseler for the vacant position. Christine Wieseler was elected by acclamation.

20. Mariana Ortega recognized Talia Bettcher, who gave a report on the Committee on the Status of Women. The winner of the Iris Marion Young Prize was Crescent Mali Mason. The term of Talia Bettcher expired. The Committee on the Status of Women was awaiting responses from possible faculty and graduate student nominees at the time of the 2021 business meeting.

21. Mariana Ortega recognized Andrea Pitts, who gave a report on the LGBTQ Advocacy Committee. The term of Leigh Johnson expired. The term of Jingchao (Chris) Ma expired. The LGBTQ Advocacy Committee nominated Amy Marvin for the vacant position. Amy Marvin was elected by acclamation. The LGBTQ Advocacy Committee also nominated Andrea Warmack as their graduate student committee member. Andrea Warmack was elected by acclamation.
22. Mariana Ortega recognized Sandra Harvey, who gave a report on the Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee. The term of Sandra Harvey expired. The Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee was awaiting responses from possible faculty member and graduate student nominees at the time of the 2021 business meeting.

24. Mariana Ortega recognized Antonio Calcagno, SPEP Executive Committee liaison to the Book Selection Advisory Committee. Antonio explained that in recent years, each of the Book Selection Advisory Committee’s members have had to read 7 or 8 books, which we believe is too much of a burden. For this reason, we expanded the size of this year’s Book Selection Advisory Committee to 29 members. We anticipate that this committee will continue to have around 30 members going forward. Additionally, because the large size of the committee will make the coordinating work of the committee chair much more difficult, we will have two members co-chair the committee. This year, we invited Yannik Thiem and Verena Erlenbusch-Anderson to chair this important committee. We thank Yannik and Verena for agreeing to chair this important committee.

25. Antonio Calcagno announced the two prize recipients for 2021. The Junior Scholar Prize Recipient was Robin Muller from California State University, Northridge for her paper “The Dred Scott Ontology and the Philosophical Significance of the Slave Narrative.” The Graduate Student Prize Recipient was Amie Zimmer from the University of Oregon for her paper “Kant’s Conjectures: The Genesis of the Feminine.” Antonio Calcagno, on behalf of the Executive Committee, also recognized the members who received the Honorable Mention Prizes for their papers. Gil Morejón from DePaul University was the recipient of the Junior Scholar Honorable Mention for his paper “Negativity in Spinozist Politics.” David Maruzzella from DePaul University was the recipient of the Graduate Student Honorable Mention for his paper “Rethinking Althusser’s Spinozism with Alexandre Matheron.”

26. Mary Beth Mader announced that the nineteenth annual SPEP panel at the American Philosophical Association Eastern Division meeting will be a roundtable titled “Biopolitics of the Pandemic.” Roundtable participants include Gordon Hull from the University of North Carolina, Charlotte; Axelle Karera from Emory University; and Perry Zurn from American University. Emily Parker from Towson University will be moderating the session. All SPEP members and friends of continental philosophy are invited to attend. The APA Eastern Division meeting will be held January 5-8, 2022 in Baltimore, Maryland.

27. Mary Beth Mader announced that this past year, in order to facilitate better communication between the SPEP Executive Committee and SPEP Standing Committees and allow the SPEP Standing Committees to play a more active role in determining SPEP policies, the SPEP Committee Council was created. The SPEP Committee Council consists of all members of the SPEP Executive Committee and all chairs (or designated representatives) from the SPEP Standing Committees, and meets approximately three times a year.

28. Mary Beth Mader announced that beginning with the 2022 conference, two new prizes will be awarded. The Sylvia Wynter Prize will be awarded for the best paper considering anti-blackness, Africana and Indigenous diasporas, colonialism, post-colonialism, settler-colonialism by a Black, Indigenous, and/or person of color junior scholar (that is, a pre-tenure scholar or graduate student). Members submitting a paper for SPEP 2022 should self-designate as wishing their paper to be considered for the prize. This prize will be awarded each year by SPEP’s Racial and Ethnic Diversity Committee. Papers submitted for the Sylvia Wynter Prize are also eligible to receive other SPEP prizes. The S. Kay Toombs Prize will be awarded for the best paper addressing disability, ableism, research in philosophy of disability, and/or research in critical disability studies by a junior scholar (that is, a scholar who has earned a PhD in the five years prior to the submission date) or graduate student. Members submitting a paper to SPEP should self-designate their paper to be considered for this prize, which will be awarded each year by the Accessibility, Disability, and Inclusion Committee. The prize-winning paper will be invited for submission to the Journal of Philosophy of Disability. Papers submitted for the S. Kay Toombs prize are also eligible to receive other SPEP prizes.

29. Mary Beth Mader announced that, on recommendation from the SPEP Committee Council, the Executive Committee intends to work more actively to raise funds to support our membership. To this end, the Executive Committee will work with the SPEP Committee Council to create a new committee to seek financial support from organizations and institutions to support various initiatives to assist junior faculty and graduate students who are Black, Indigenous, and/or people of color in attending our annual conference and participating in other SPEP activities. We welcome hearing from any members who have grant-writing experience or experience with organizations that might be able to provide funding about their interest in serving on this committee.

30. Gail Weiss announced that to be considered for publication in the SPEP Supplement of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy, presenters should submit their paper via the online submission system of the Journal of Speculative Philosophy, which is listed in the SPEP program, by December 15, 2021. Papers submitted should be no longer than 4500 words inclusive of notes. Papers should be formatted according to the Chicago Manual of Style and in MS Word format (no PDFs). Only individual papers are considered, not full panels or book session presentations. Final decisions regarding the papers to be included in the volume will be made by mid-February 2022. Please note that if you have not paid your annual membership dues to SPEP by the end of the conference then your paper will NOT be considered for publication.

31. Alan Schrift invited new business and announcements from the membership. There were several announcements from the floor.

32. Alan Schrift adjourned the meeting at 5:53 pm.

Philosophy Today reflects the current questions, topics, and debates of contemporary philosophy, with a particular focus on continental philosophy. It provides space for reviews, as well as short translations of the works of contemporary philosophical figures originally published in other languages.

Established in 1957, it is published quarterly on behalf of the philosophy department at DePaul University.

SPEP members have online access to all issues as a benefit of membership.

Experience and Empiricism
Hegel, Hume, and the Early Deleuze
Russell Ford

“This book will transform how we understand Deleuze's relationship to empiricism. Offering a masterful close reading and a meticulous account of Deleuze's interpretation of Hume, Russell Ford demonstrates how this interpretation intervened in the major debates among French philosophical circles in the first half of the twentieth century.” —Alan D. Schrift, author of Twentieth-Century French Philosophy: Key Themes and Thinkers

Levinas on the Primacy of the Ethical
Philosophy as Prophecy
Jeffrey Bloechl

“This volume goes to the heart of Levinas's profoundly original and thus challenging ethics, clarifying and highlighting its essentials without conflation, simplification, or superficial criticism, and accenting the all-important social transcendence or ‘prophecy’ of goodness that makes for the humanity of the human.” —Richard A. Cohen, author of Levinasian Meditations: Ethics, Philosophy, and Religion
